Trio ousted by decisive margin

By HENRY CANTIN

Voters of the Huron Township School District ousted three members of the Huron Township Board of Education in a special recall election Monday.

The three school board members decisively recalled by the electorate are:

Mrs. Howard (Mildred) Bennett, 28111 Brandes, Flat Rock.
Mrs. Erma Palmiter, 51, of 32150 Prescott, Romulus.
And Harry Hartsuff, 45, 21850 Bell Rd., New Boston.

The official vote returns on the three separate recall ballots which called for a "yes" or "no" vote were as follows:

Mrs. Bennett, 859 "yes" votes to 474 "no" votes or a total vote of 1,333.

Mrs. Palmiter 805 "yes" votes to 504 "no" votes or a total of 1,309.

Harry Hartsuff 797 "yes" votes to 515 "no" votes or a total of 1,312.

The vote was certified as above by the Board of Canvassers Monday night.

The vote results include 16 absentee ballots. The school district has a vote registry of approximately 3,000 persons.

The campaign to recall the three newly elected (June, 1970) school board members was initiated on Jan. 21 by a citizens committee calling itself "People for Huron."

Reasons for the recall of the trio as cited on the official ballot were:

"Failure to conduct themselves in office so as to represent the position of the undersigned electors and failure to conduct the duties of such office in a manner calculated to represent the best interests of the school office."

The citizens committee charged the three school board members with having harassed and bringing unsubstantiated complaints against the school superintendent Byron K. Antcliff, who recently was awarded a new three-year employment contract with the school district, and the four other school board members, School Board President Carl Rush; Mrs. Jean E. Richert, board secretary; L. Charles Larabell, Jr., board vice president; and Leo Kyko, board treasurer.

President Rush in commenting on the election results said: "I feel it was a vote of confidence on the part of the citizens on the way things have been conducted. It is unfortunate to have this kind of vote but the citizens called for the election. I am pleased with the results."

Rush stated that the school board has 20 days to make appointments to fill the vacancies caused by the recall vote.

The three ousted board members had instituted a suit in Wayne County Circuit Court seeking an injunction stopping the election on the ground that it was not scheduled within legal time limitations.

The court action was filed by Detroit attorney Larry S. Davidow.

Circuit Judge Edward S. Piggins last Thursday heard presentations by opposing attorneys and deferred a decision. Judge Piggins permitted the recall election to proceed saying that his chief reason for allowing the vote to proceed "is the expense the township has gone to in planning this."

The trio maintained in their suit that election laws require a local branch of government to hold an election within 35 days after petitions for the election are validated.

They contended that the recall petitions were validated last Feb. 5 by township officials and that the election should have been held prior to March 29 date of the recall election.

School board officials reported that they consulted with the Michigan Attorney General's office, and their own counsel prior to scheduling the election date and contend that provisions of the State Constitution superseded the state school law cited as the basis for the court suit.

In court, school board attorneys argue that to hold an election so soon could amount to disenfranchising of some voters who might not have the time to register for the special election.

The Huron Board of Education at Tuesday night's board meeting discussed and authorized its counsel to take whatever action is necessary to make the vote effective, if in anyway the court suit negates the wishes of the electorate.

Taxes over $6 million

Albert Glinki, treasurer for the City of Romulus reported Monday that the 1970 tax collections just completed totaled $6,304,030.29 or 93.4 per cent of the total levy.

A distribution has been made to the schools, county and city.

The auditing of the tax rolls for the city by the firm of Post, Smythe, Lutz and Ziel was accomplished in record time due to the efficiency of the Cashiers, Miss Barbara Roupe and Miss Marlene Svacha.

Glinki further stated the girls did an excellent job for their first tax collection with only one ten cent shortage for the entire period.

BOSS COMMENDS HIS CASHIERS — Albert Glinki, Romulus treasurer, reported that collections of 1970 city taxes totaled $6,304,030 or 93.4 per cent of the total tax due from property owners. He attributes the fine collection to the "excellent job" of the treasurer's office cashiers: Miss Barbara Roupe and Miss Marlene Svacha.

Romulus City Council disagrees

Church-state mix debated

The Rev. Father Joseph F. Kernosek, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church of Romulus will observe the 25th Anniversary of his ordination June 5.

Formal recognition of Rev. Kernosek's "sacred ordination and dedication to the spiritual service to mankind and to the Romulus Community" was taken last week by Romulus City Council.

The city council adopted a resolution honoring and commending Rev. Kernosek's long service to the spiritual needs of his parishioners and community.

The roll vote on the resolution was four in favor and three against. Those who voted against the resolution were Councilmen William M. Oakley, James C. Stewart and Fred Junior Block.

A Silver Jubilee Committee has been formed and is presently preparing plans and a brochure for the 25th Anniversary.

The council's vote followed considerable discussion on the quarter of mixing politics and church raised by Councilman James C. Stewart, who said, "I don't think we should mix politics and church by adoption of this resolution. If we want to acknowledge the event by letter it is all right. We open the door to such requests by approving the resolution."

Councilman Edmund Bizak made a motion that the resolution be adopted. He was supported by Councilman Ellis T. Pennington, who said, "I think it is a good resolution. I think that anyone who devoted 25 years to the religious life in the community deserves recognition. I am not a Catholic. I vote in favor of the resolution."

Stewart stated that he disagreed with Pennington, pointing out that the Constitution assures separation of church and state.

Council President Jimmie Raspberry, in voting in behalf of the resolution, cited a dying soldier's comment to a priest who was attending to his needs, "I am not of your faith," to which the priest replied, "We are all from God."

Raspberry added, "I am protestant. I fully concur with the resolution. Anything pertaining to God, I am grateful."

Pennington added, I don't see we are violating the Constitution by showing our appreciation for a man's service. We are not asking the support of the church. It is only an appreciation."

The resolution approved by the council follows:

"Whereas: The Reverend Father Joseph F. Kernosek, pastor of St. Aloysius Roman Catholic Church, Romulus, is on June 6, 1971 observing the twenty fifth anniversary of his sacred ordination and dedication to the spiritual service to mankind and

Whereas: The entire City of Romulus has been the recipient of his spiritual efforts and his many community-minded endeavors and physical as well as spiritual leadership.

Therefore be it resolved: That the Romulus City Officials join with the people of our community on this most happy occasion in expression of our job and congratulations to Father Kernosek, in appreciation for his many past contributions to the spiritual and physical well-being of our community and the sincerest wishes for his future success in his devotion."

Teamsters take over

Workers drop union

Romulus city employees have voted to change their union affiliation.

In a special election conducted under the supervision of the State of Michigan Labor Mediation Board and held

Monday at the Romulus City Hall, employees voted in favor of Local 214 of the Teamsters State, County & Municipal Workers and rejected their present bargaining agent, Council 21, American Federation of State, County &

Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO.

The vote tabulations were 42 for the teamsters local, one for no union, and none for Council 21. It was reported that there was one challenged ballot.

Jack Kent of the Romulus Building Department was the employee representative at the election.

Hugh Dorrean, representative from the Labor Mediation Board, supervised the election which was held during the hours of 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

Following official certification of Local 214 by the state agency as the sole bargaining agent for the 43 employees, negotiations for a new employment contract will begin with city officials. The present employment contract expires April 19.

The employees had petitioned the State Labor Mediation Board for the election complaining that their present union local failed to sufficiently represent their demands upon the city administration.

Chamber holds initial meeting

The Romulus Metro International Airport Chamber of Commerce held its initial general membership meeting last week at the Hilton Inn, Wick Rd. near Metro Airport.

Highlights of the first session of the chamber was the appearance of State Highway Department Planning Division representatives and the appointment of chairman of various subcommittees in the chamber's three major areas of operations.

The proposed I-275 Expressway that will pass through a portion of the City of Romulus was derailed by Robert Adams and Torac Adamen, of the planning division of Michigan State Highway Department.

Douglas S. Baum, president of the chamber, announced the appointments of the following members and their committees on which they will serve.

In division one - Internal Relations, the chairmen are: Finance Committee, Anthony Kopas, Edmund Galazka and Ronald Makino, co-chairmen; Public Relation, Ronald Hurta and Henry Cantin; Membership, Mrs. June Davis;

Flags will fly on city buildings

By orders of city council, the American Flag will henceforth fly atop the city hall.

The flag directive was issued following a complaint by Councilman Brooker R. Edwards who had made previous requests to have the flag flown daily atop the city hall.

He reported that his requests had not been complied with.

Councilman Ellis T. Pennington made a motion that the American Flag be flown daily not only at city Hall but on all municipal buildings. He was supported in his motion by Edwards.

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael said that he would see to it that the council orders are carried out.

PCHA having employee trouble

The Peoples Community Hospital Authority and the Service Employees International Union are having a hard time agreeing on a wage settlement for the hourly workers of the Authority's four hospitals.

Although the employees' contract remains in force, the union workers are exercising the privilege they have a renegotiating on money matters every year.

The Board of Directors received news of union rejection of their latest wage offer during a regular meeting

Thursday night. The board was ready to move on a motion approving the wage pact worked out by the Authority's negotiating team; it would also have acted on pay raises for salaried employees.

The board's wage offer included a 37½ cent an hour, across the board increase to cover all job classifications;

Afternoon, night and weekend shift differential pay would have been increased to 25 cents an hour from 20 cents.

A spokesman for the hourly employees termed the reason for rejection as "general dissatisfaction."

The SEIU spokesman added that the "People had requested $1 per hour increase." However, he said he felt settlement lies somewhere between the 37½ cents offered and 50 cents.

The union had also asked for other fringe benefits, including three months hospitalization and free life insurance costs for up to three months during employee illness.

Fringe benefits included in the rejected contract were: —an additional holiday, the day before Christmas;

—double time if called to work on a holiday;

—payment of Blue Cross insurance after a 90-day probationary period;

—increased life insurance benefits to $5,000 and $2,500 for fulltime and parttime employees, respectively; —and increased retirement benefits.

The board acted on the recommendation for approval of the proposed wage offer anyway, after amending the motion to allow union reconsideration until April 21.

Union representatives informed Dr. Karl S. Klicka, M.D., PCHA executive director, that the negative vote ran 225 against and 187 for acceptance.

Treasurer R. J. Remer admitted it was difficult to determine what affect the rejection would have on the PCHA budget, passed on during the board meeting.

Remer had already informed the board that the budget as stated did not include approximately $135,000 additional cost incorporated into the rejected contract.

That figure, he said, was over and above what the Authority had hoped to settle for. Now, apparently, that figure will be even greater.

Remer added that it has been the Authority's custom to run from one budget year to another without additional, mid-year expenditures.

But he says that labor costs govern more than three quarters of the entire budget. With increases in labor costs, health care costs are extremely difficult to control. Additional funds might be needed sometime before the next budget is scheduled to be presented, he said.

promise of rebirth

Editor's note: The following is the sixth of a series of Lenten Sermons by area pastors and leading churchmen. This week's article was submitted by Rev. Robert MacDonald, pastor of the Trinity Episcopal Church of Belleville.

As this article is being written, the sun is shining, the spring birds are beginning to make their annual reappearance, and the promise of spring is again in the air. We look forward to this seasonal return of new life after a long, and for many people, a tiresome winter.

There is a promise of new life in the out-of-doors, with the greening of the grass, the budding of bushes and trees, and last fall's bulbs breaking through the earth.

There is another promise that is made to those who believe. The promise of God as recorded in the Bible, witnessed to by the prophets, by Jesus Christ, and by millions of people throughout the ages is that all of us can have a re-birth, a new life, a new quality of life on earth, now.

It takes eyes of faith to be able to see the possibility of this new life available to us, and it takes a certain kind of inner attitude, or openness to be willing to dare to believe the promise.

But to those who have dared to believe, for those who have tried to prepare themselves, a new kind of life begins to take shape. It begins by looking for help from outside of ourselves. It means making a decision that we cannot run our own lives all by ourselves. It means turning around and looking to another for the power we need to be able to love and trust the way that we would like to be able to love and trust.

Lent is the season in which we make additional preparations for the renewal of the love of God through Jesus Christ in us and in our fellow Christians.

We need to want the new life enough to put some effort into our own preparation, just as we need to want a better garden and do the necessary spade work for it.

Easter does come each year, and some experience the fuller life in Jesus Christ because of the way that they have prepared during Lent. Are you expecting any new personal growth in your spirit this spring?

It is not too late to do the preparation for Easter that will make it a glorious day for you and your family.

Easter Seal unit urges area support

To the editor:

In the midst of sweeping change, with day-to-day living becoming more and more influenced by the large, the impersonal, and the distant, there is an imperative need for a revitalization of the traditional desire of the individual to be helpful to persons less fortunate and to contribute in some way to the betterment of society.

This need becomes increasingly apparent in the variety of ways we deliver health services to the individual, the family and the community. In the forefront of the health-care field are the voluntary agencies, such as the Easter Seal societies, which depend upon the volunteer for help in providing health benefits more rapidly to larger numbers of people.

Volunteers serve on boards and committees, act as advisors and lay consultants, participate in service programs, and help to raise funds. Right now this latter activity — the raising of funds — is occupying the efforts of thousands of volunteers of the Easter Seal society, which provides specialized treatment to the crippled through some 2,500 facilities that include rehabilitation centers, clinics, camps, workshops, hospitals, and other services.

PCHA board member criticizes executive

To the Editor:

Once again the manner in which Seaway hospital is handling its Emergency Room came under fire before our City Council and I for one both as a councilman of the City of Southgate and a representative of the City on the Board of Directors of Peoples Community Hospital Authority intend to press for a change in the Emergency Room set up of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority hospitals.

An excellent example of the lack of knowledge of Dr. Karl S. Klicka (the present Executive Director of the PCHA) is a statement he made both in the press and in the monthly PCHA newsletter and I quote, "Let's just imagine as an example that your sister or your mother is brought into one of our emergency rooms with a fractured arm or leg or a severe head injury.

Would you want her to be treated by a pediatrician or perhaps even a dermatologist? Under a plan of rotating staff physicians in emergency rooms this could very well occur. Skilled as these men are in their own field, very few of them are prepared to deal with the traumatically ill or injured.

With the tremendous usage now being made of all hospital emergency departments we have reached a point where these facilities must be supervised by specialists in acute and initial care, emphasized Dr. Klicka."

Dr. Klicka as Executive Director of the PCHA negotiated the contract with the physicians at Seaway Hospital and a check with that hospital disclosed that the entire group of physicians covering the emergency room is made up of

The Easter Seal movement is beginning its second half century of focusing public attention on the needs of the crippled and providing rehabilitation facilities and services for them. Like other national voluntary health agencies, the Easter Seal Society is supported primarily by voluntary contributions from the public at large.

Today, faced with growing numbers of crippled children and adults — an estimated 40,000 to 50,000 youngsters meet with crippling accidents annually and tens of thousands are born with physical defects — the Easter Seal societies across the nation are depending upon public response to the Easter Seal campaign to enable them to provide the expanded service needed.

We hope that the people of Western Wayne County will join the ranks of "volunteers for the handicapped" by giving to Easter Seals as generously as their purses — and hearts — allow.

pediatricians, obstetricians, general surgeons, general practitioners and one dermatologist.

Dr. Klicka doesn't know the doctors he hired to work the emergency, and the inference that these men are not qualified should scare the hell out of anyone having to go to the emergency room of any one of the PCHA hospitals.

I have checked with other hospitals throughout the metropolitan area and I have found that there is no medical school that teaches a doctor to specialize in emergency room. All doctors must serve their extern, intern, and residency and throughout this practice emergency care is a basic part of it.

The entire medical staff of the PCHA should censure Dr. Klicka and demand a retraction of his statement to assure the public that every doctor who is privileged to practice in the PCHA hospitals has the basic skills necessary to care for patients using the PCHA emergency facilities.

Reader loves seeing Old Glory on city hall

To the editor:

Thank God that I see the Old Glory flying over our City Hall. Thanks to Councilmen Ellis T. Pennington and Brooker R. Edwards for making the motion before City Council to have the American flag fly daily over the Municipal Building.

Our flag has not been flying since the township Romulus became a city (May, 1970).

I have fought many times and told council members about flying the flag over the city hall.

I love to see Old Glory atop all municipal buildings.

Macrame makes knotty problems

Members of the YWCA's Young Matrons group tackled some knotty problems when they met last Thursday morning (March 25) to learn Macrame.

"Is it over two and under one? — or is under two and over one?" echoed around the table as more than twenty young women tied right and wrong knots in lengths of yarn and puzzled over Miss Aileen Grey's instructions.

The Matrons group meets each second and fourth Thursday during the hours of the "Y" sponsored pre-school nursery (9:30-11:30) for some socializing and, for the time being, to learn how to make ornate belts and handbags.

After an hour or so with the yarn, time out was declared for coffee and rolls. Following refreshments, the knotting seemed to go better and when the time came to pick up the children, everyone had mastered the square knot.

When they meet again on April 8, they are going to learn how to tie "Half Hitches".

Among those who attended Thursday's session were: Mrs. Frances Niemi, Mrs. Linda Grossman, Mrs. Shirley Gaynor, Mrs. Edith Roundtree, Mrs. Vi Martin, Mrs. Dorothy Ball, Mrs. Marion Rosinski, Mrs. Darlene Millis.

Mrs. Carole Rarick, Mrs. Cathy Garland, Mrs. Mary Paratchek, Mrs. Mary Ann Guenthardt, Mrs. Ada Wagner, Mrs. Marjory Ruthowski, Mrs. Darlene Donnelly, and Mrs. Jeannie Ursery.

Hospital official labels PCHA members 'rubber stamps'

Peoples Community Hospital Authority board member Tracy E. Salisbury, a councilman from Ecorse, ignored Robert's Rules at last night's board meeting and blasted other members for ignoring alleged conflict of interests charges he says he has documented against an unnamed person connected with the PCHA.

Salisbury labelled other board members "yes-men" and "rubber stamps," for going along "with anything that's brought before you," although he named no one specifically.

The Ecorse representative says he has documented proof of the reported conflict of interests, but says he wants the board to pass a motion protecting him in litigation before he will divulge it.

Salisbury threatened to involve the state Attorney General and the Wayne County Prosecutor in the case.

"This will be a slap in the face for this board and for you," he said, addressing PCHA Executive Director Karl S. Klicka, M.D., and Board Chairman Donald J. Pizzimenti, adding that he thought Dr. Klicka's "days are numbered."

Wayne Mayor Patrick Norton objected to the outburst, saying that Salisbury had made a habit over the past year of "continually haranguing the board on petty issues." He did not refer specifically to Salisbury's charges of conflict.

Norton also demanded names from Salisbury after the Ecorse councilman said that there "were and still are" board members seeking arrangements which would put them in conflicting positions.

Westland's Dale D. Hoover, a committee chairman, insisted that he had asked Salisbury several times over the past six months for proof to back up his charges, which he has mentioned in board and committee meetings on several occasions.

Salisbury claimed that Klicka and Pizzimenti had been "in bed" and evidence identical to his, but were doing nothing for fear of a conflict.

Recreation head still has his job

Romulus Senior High School.

"unsuspected and a complete surprise to all," Jones stated.

The request to reappoint Jones brought about considerable amount of discussion among council members.

The vote to reappoint Jones was six in favor and one against the reappointment. Councilman James C. Stewart voiced the only dissenting vote.

DuWayne Martin, chairman of the recreation commission, presented the recommendation and request for the reappointment of Jones for the balance of the present fiscal year at the March 23 council session.

Councilman Stewart suggested that the council approved the running of an advertisement for a recreation director, Martin reported that he and the commission members had made a request for a full time recreation director in the recreation commission's budget up for consideration of city council and was only asking for a continuance of Jones' employment until the end of the fiscal year.

Councilman Stewart in voicing his objections to the reappointment of Jones reported that he had heard reports of charges that students at Romulus Senior High School staged a "vulgar and obscene play" as part of the talent show presented under the sponsorship of the sophomore class.

He contended that Jones, who was in charge, permitted the act complained about. Stewart admitted that he had not witnessed the talent show.

He further reported that he had heard that the American flag was desecrated during the performance.

Stewart stated that he did not want a person who permitted the act to continue as recreation director.

Jones, who was present at the council session, reported that he knew nothing of the flag incident and the talent show was an open affair.

The act in question was done by outside students who did not present a rehearsal prior to their appearance in the talent show held March 7.

The act complained of was Councilman William M. Oakley made a motion that council get a report of the incident from the Romulus Board of Education for review before deciding on the reappointment. His motion was defeated by a vote of four to three.

An investigation of the talent show was made by School Superintendent Robert L. McConeghy who reported that he had turned in his report to the school board.

He called the show an "unfortunate incident" and pledged better teacher supervision in the future.

Robert Plank, a spokesman for a citizens group that had complained, reported at March 8 school board hearing, that the school administration had done a good job of investigating the talent show incident.

He added that he felt that there had been no definition of school policies, only the establishment of restrictions on school building use.

McConeghy stated that his investigation disclosed that "too much responsibility had been placed on students."

He assured the group that there will be better supervision and control of future shows and productions at the high school.

Council President Jimmie Raspberry in commenting on Jones' reappointment said, "This is the recommendation of the recreation commission, a group of people of different faiths. I am not going to convict on hearsay. I am going to vote for the reappointment."

Councilman Brooker R. Edwards said, "I feel that the recreation commission has worked with him (Jones), I think that we should go along with the recommendation of our recreation commission."

Hayti dental program reaches 350 students

The dental program at the Hayti Elementary School, conducted under the supervision of the Romulus PTA, has assisted 350 students during the last seven years.

The students have made more than 3,000 trips to the dentist during this time.

The Romulus PTA began their program in 1964 and since then have paid out more than $7,000 for services supplied by the Wayne County Health Department.

The funds for the program have been raised by volunteers through weekly school lunches and an annual fair.

Mrs. John Geisler, chairman of the program for the last two years, is in charge of the records, reports, appointment schedules, transportation and chaperones.

"So many families cannot afford the kind of dental care they would like for their children. But by working together we are providing it," Mrs. Geisler said.

All children at Hayti over six are eligible and are put on a six-month recall list for checkups.

Dr. Paul Babas, dental director of the county's health department, reports that "only one appointment out of 456 last year was missed. The PTA raises the money on their own and sees to it that the kids behave."

Public hearing on zoning slated

The City Council has scheduled a public hearing on the city's proposed zoning ordinance.

The public hearing will be held at 7 p.m., April 20, at the Romulus Senior High School Auditorium, Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael announced.

The hearing follows numerous meetings of the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Zoning, City Planning Commission and members of City Council.

The zoning map and text has been approved by the various groups and final approval awaits the results of the public hearing.

Following city incorporation for Romulus in May, 1970, the city council approved with revisions and amendments a zoning ordinance enacted in March, 1970, by the old township board.

This new zoning ordinance met with strong disfavor in some parts of the community.

A citizen's group voiced objections to a multiple zoning classification for a land site at Middlebelt and Van Buren Rds., an area near their homes. The group initiated a referendum vote drive to kill the ordinance.

In a special referendum election held on Aug. 4, 1970, the voters rejected the amended ordinance.

Since then city officials have been conducting hearings on citizen's complaints, ideas, suggestions and proposed zoning classifications for the new ordinance which will be presented at the public hearing.

Romulus citizens probe school trouble

Interested citizens, parents, teachers, administrators, school board members and students met last Friday in eight areas of the city to mull over recent events at the Romulus Senior High School and to make some observations.

About 20 people sat down together at each of the elementary schools in the district, to get better acquainted and to exchange views, reported Mrs. Fran Petre, PTA Area Council president, and coordinator for the sessions.

"It appears that each group approached the problems differently," she said, "although all had the same list of topics to discuss." "There seems to be a wealth of information about how each area of our city reacts to problems that effect all of us," she added.

The work sheets filled out in each area will be turned over to the board of education to consider when it attempts to resolve district problems, she said.

Teachers, school board members, PTA presidents and principals were as follows: Gordonier Elementary School, John White, Senior High science; William E. Jakad, assistant superintendent of schools; Mrs. W.M. Persondek, PTA president; and Dan Murray, school principal.

Harrison Elementary: Miss Barbra Brown, Senior high English; Robert L. McConeghy, superintendent of schools; Mrs. Tressa Rohde, PTA president; and Robert Babel, school principal.

Cory Elementary: Wade Jones, senior high music and REA president; Jason Lovette, school board member; Mrs. Robbin Kring, PTA president; and James Madigan school principal.

Hayti Elementary: William Knight, senior high English,

Frank Filkins, school board member; Mrs. Gordon Zavitz, PTA president; and Val Connolly, school principal.

In our opinion

Take time to write to your lawmakers

Where is it going to end? The problem of financing our schools, we mean.

The voters in north Westland and Livonia said an emphatic "no" to a 3.5-mill renewal last Monday, and renewals usually don't receive such negative response. As a result, the Livonia School District has announced the dismissal of 300 teachers.

Alerted to a cash crisis next year, the Wayne Community School District - also in action last Monday - has notified 24 administrative staff members that their services will not be sought for next year.

All of the other school districts in the Western Wayne County area are faced with similar fiscal problems. Like we asked above, where is it going to end?

As we indicated last Friday and a reader from Canton Township mentions in a letter published on this page, the most logical answer is tax reform. Property owners are fed up with increasing taxes - some of which they can prevent, as in millage elections, and others in which they have no specific say, as in assessments - and still there's no tax reform.

Gov. Milliken and our legislators have to be made aware of the public's desire to get away from the property tax system. It's outmoded and unfair in this age of apartment living and it's extremely difficult for fixed income residents, especially for retired persons who have worked all their lives for the right to live and own their individual homes.

The most promising reform is a change to statewide income taxation to support our schools. In addition, Michigan could reap millions of dollars from the legalization of off-track betting and or a state lottery. New Jersey is expected to gain about $50 million from its first lottery.

At the bottom of this page, you will find the names and addresses of all your legislators pertinent to the fiscal problem. The only way to sway some of their opinions is to take the time to tell them your feelings.

For 18 cents, you could dash off three letters - all could say the same thing - to the governor, your state senator and your state representative. If enough people write, we're sure those people we put in Lansing will listen.

However, we also believe that more money isn't the only answer. School and local government administrators also must take a serious look at their own expenses and make sure they are getting everything they should for the millions of dollars being spent.

After-all, almost any businessman you ask can tell you his biggest deficits come from within. Expenses must be justified.

WILLIAM D. FORD
...presented U.S. flag

Garden City is still reminiscing about the splits and spares missed that could have made the difference. They hit 2529 while the Wayne team hit 2530.

The winners are: Doris Leatherman, Pauline Ruthig, Norma Burk, Lucille Goetz and Gene Burk.

Kathryn Glover was home in Garden City for Easter week-end, then Mom took her back to school. She attends Sharon High School in Sharon, Mich. While at home she was fitted for her bridesmaid gown. Mrs. Glover is making the six gowns to be worn at the wedding of her other daughter, Jackie, in June.

Tom Arutoff, gunner's mate third class, USN, son of Mrs. Essie M. Kilian of 26435 Westwood Hills Drive, Inkster, and husband of the former Miss Alice M. Howell of Pryse, Ky., was scheduled to return to Norfolk, Va., aboard the Atlantic Fleet heavy cruiser USS Des Moines after completing exercises with Operation Springboard in the Caribbean.

ONE YEAR AGO

March 31, 1970 - Mayor Robert B. Blackwell of Hamtramck will visit Wayne on May 18 as part of Mayor's Exchange Day, it was confirmed.

Leading the activities for the week will be Councilman James Glennie, who has been chosen Michigan Week chairman.

The Michigan AAU Group State Swimming Championship will be held in Garden City April 4 and 5. This is the eighth year the Garden City Parks and Recreation Department has hosted the event.

Over 1,000 entries are expected at the East High Community Pool competition, which will be directed by Swim Team Coach Jewel Cooke.

A novel program is being proposed by the Westland Chamber of Commerce and the 18th District Court for the benefit of female offenders. The venture hopefully will decrease the "bogged down workload" of Chamber Secretary Harriet Gagnon and hopefully rehabilitate female violators sentenced in the District Court.

An Inkster man, the president of a building and home improvement company, will benefit from a plan that is expected to set a national pattern for increasing employment of minority groups in the construction industry.

The man is Alvin Coleman of 28234 Reiverview, who is president of the Coleman Building and Improvement Co. of 10440 W. McNichols, Detroit.

U.S. Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) made a special visit to Canton Township to present the township with a new U.S. flag to replace the one which was stolen nearly a month ago.

Township Supervisor Phil Dingelday and other Canton officials were on hand to accept the flag which at one time flew over the nation's capital.

Speaking of schools

Title I program described

The Van Buren Title I staff also concerns itself with starting specific behavioral objectives for all the "Johnny's". Behavioral objectives are measurable and Johnny, his parents, his teacher and all other interest persons can determine his success or failure from them.

Revised materials are provided as Johnny either passes or flunks each progressive objective. After the teacher explicitly explains the goals to Johnny, he decided (within reason) whether the objectives are too easy or too difficult for him.

Who else can really make this decision? None of us, including his parents, can open Johnny's head and determine specifically what he can or cannot do!

Behavioral objectives state precisely and realistically what Johnny will do; how long (approximately) it will take him to do it, and what will be accepted as mastery of each task.

This is essential. We need no longer simply state Johnny could do better if he only would; if he'd just stop running around the classroom; if he'd apply himself, or if he'd quit shooting off his mouth, and etc. etc. etc.!!

As true as these kinds of statements often are, they tell neither Johnny nor his parents anything to do to help correct the problems. The above statements must include specific, measurable goals (which Johnny can also understand) to improve his academic and/or social behavior.

We can innovate and experiment until we drop dead, but innovation and experimentation by themselves will not teach Johnny to read, spell, sit in his seat or act in a socially-acceptable manner. (Whatever that means.)

Johnny is the key figure. He is the fellow who is on target and it is our job to zero in on Johnny's specific problems.

The first step is to state who is accountable for Johnny's success. These people include his teacher, the Title I staff, the administrators and the parents of all of the Johnny's.

However, just naming the persons who must assume some accountability for Johnny is an "accountability cliché." It is impractical, wordy and unrealistic. It tells nothing about Johnny's problems nor ways to implement change.

This list must be followed by sensible, concrete, measurable goals which Johnny can understand and reach. They must be stated in behavioral goals which Johnny can understand and reach.

They must be stated in behavioral objectives which include what Johnny will do, approximately how long it will take him to do it and what will be considered mastery of each objective.

Then and only then can the schools and the parents get to work and zero in on Johnny's problems.

Westlanders urged to attend meeting

To the editor:

Westland is in the process of paving all dirt roads whether we want them paved or not. As taxpayers, we should have the right to decide whether we want to pave or not.

We want to do this the American way, not the way the Westland City Council wants to do it.

As Westland residents involved in this paving program, at least 80 per cent of the residents are opposed to this program. For these reasons (1) cost; (2) loss of property; (6) property assessed higher than its value.

Also council wants to open dead end streets that are to benefit no one. As a resident of Westland in the paving program, I would like to inform all Westland residents that you will be paying part of the paving program as it will be put on the tax roll at large.

If you have doubts about this being added to your taxes, contact City Hall and see what they tell you. If they do not confirm this, (please) attend the meetings at the Wayne-Ford Civic League at 8 p.m. tomorrow (Thursday).

As all Westland residents, we should stick together if we hope to make this a thriving community. (Please) Attend all council meetings at City Hall (Mondays at 8 p.m.) and find out how the council decides for you.

Gov. Milliken asked to reconsider 'betting'

To the editor:

While Gov. Milliken seeks new ways of raising more tax revenues, namely raising taxes on gasoline and state income taxes, he recently stated that he was opposed to off-track betting.

Is Gov. Milliken too hasty in eliminating this source of additional revenue?

It is a well known fact that our own Detroit Race Course has taken in nearly $1,000,000 in a single day. Simple common sense would show that having legalized betting would more than double this amount, and this is not including the other two Detroit area race courses.

For those who contend that gambling is immoral and that it is all linked to the underworld, just think what legalized off-track betting would do to the underworld's operations. The state would go into competition and virtually drive them out of business or, at least, deprive them of some of their revenue.

Thus the state would be achieving two goals, getting more revenue and putting a curb to the illegal off-track betting operations.

Perhaps Gov. Milliken should reconsider his opposition to off-track betting.

This week's news 18-year-old vote

By EDUARDE E. MAHALAK
STATE REPRESENTATIVE,
38th DISTRICT

By far the biggest news in the legislature in recent days was house adoption of a resolution ratifying a U. S. Constitutional amendment to nationally lower the voting age to 18 years.

The house action was taken shortly after congressional approval of the 18-year-old vote. Before it can become the 26th amendment to the U.S. Constitution it will require ratification by at least 38 of the 50 states.

A number of state legislatures already have ratified the amendment. The ratification resolution passed overwhelmingly in the house is now in the hands of the senate. It is expected to be readily adopted there, but probably not immediately.

The house had earlier passed a resolution which would place before Michigan voters a proposed state constitutional amendment to lower the voting age in the state to 18 years. This is now also in the hands of the senate. It would not be needed, of course, if the U.S. constitutional amendment is ratified by the states.

Michigan voters rejected the 18-year-old vote in 1966 and in 1970.

Ratification of the congressional action would clarify the present confusing status of 18 to 21-year-olds at the election booth in Michigan.

A federal law passed last year reduced the voting age, but the U.S. supreme court ruled it applies only to the election of federal officials they could not vote for state or local officers.

Election officials fear considerable confusion and possibly the need for separate sets of voting machines or ballots, one for those under 21 and another for persons over 21.

The lower voting age would give an estimated 500,000 young people the right to vote in Michigan.

Eighteen-year-olds can vote in Alaska, Kentucky and Georgia while six other states have lowered their voting age limit to either 19 or 20.

In other activities in the house, a bill to lower the ratio of registered voters per voting machine from 600 to 500 was approved despite considerable opposition. The vote was 61 to 45. Fifty-six votes are required to pass a bill in the house.

The bill originally called for 400 voters per machine, but was amended to raise the figure to 500. - Four hundred voters per machine might have been more of a convenience to the electorate, but it also could have meant considerable extra expenses for local communities which would have to buy additional machines.

The purpose of the bill, which has been sent to the senate for consideration, is to reduce the need for long lines of voters waiting for a chance to cast ballots. It was pointed out in the debate that in many cases voters are waiting in line for as much as two hours after the polls close.

Those against the bill argued that there is no necessity for a statewide standard since many communities have no such problems and others that need more machines are buying them.

Environmental good stressed in programs

Anti-pollution and other environmental benefits have been emphasized in the development of State and county Rural Environmental Assistance Programs (REAP) for 1971.

Nick Smith, Chairman of the Michigan ASC Committee, explained that REAP was formerly ACP — the Agricultural Conservation Program, which has been operative since 1936. The name change is the key to the program change.

Long range preservation of the environment and more public benefits are being emphasized. Lower priority is being placed on conservation practices which are production oriented or which provide only temporary benefits, Smith said.

REAP will continue to be administered by county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committees. Eighty-three county committees in Michigan have now developed their local programs.

In considering applications by farmers, as individuals or in groups, first priority will be given to those practices which will best improve the community environment and provide the most public benefits.

Encouragement will be given to such farmland conservation measures as dams and ponds, permanent grass cover, sod waterways, buffer strips and tree plantings. All of these practices help retain and slow down water and reduce siltation as the water moves downstream. Practices which help reduce pollution from animal wastes, fertilizers and pesticides also will be encouraged.

Most cost-sharing is on a fifty-fifty basis between farmers and the Government. However, Smith stated that the Government will assume a greater portion of the cost for certain practices carried out in special projects or by low-income farmers. Michigan had five special ACP projects in 1970.

The special project

Safe disappears

A safe burglary at the Henderson Dodge Sales, located at 9700 Belleville Rd. is being investigated by the Ypsilanti State Police.

Police reported that a two by two-foot metal safe was stolen from the cashier's office following a break-in into the car dealership through a rear window.

The safe, it was reported, contained $3,804 in cash, a bank draft for $2,670, and $11,889 in checks stamped "for deposit only" and payroll checks.

State police stated that the theft was discovered March 21.

The safe was apparently rolled into a rear parking lot, lifted into a vehicle and carried off.

Special unit

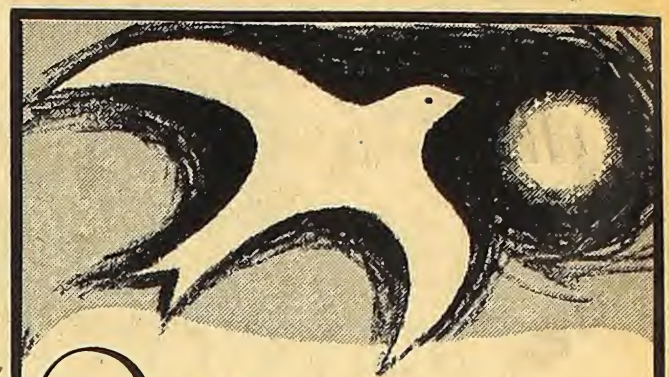

FRANKFORT, Ky. — State Police plan to form a special unit to investigate the extent of organized crime in Kentucky. A computer system will be used to gather data.

PTO meet is scheduled

The Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) of the Hannan Road Elementary School will hold an informative meeting at the school at 7:30 p.m. April 5.

Mrs. Marjorie May, teacher in the Van Buren Public Schools, will present plans for landscaping the school grounds.

Irvin MacFarland, a representative from the Natural Resources Commission of Michigan will be present to answer questions relative to the art of landscaping and Jerald Daraheim, of the Wayne County Extension Department, will present a film on conservation and answer questions on insect, pest control and soil conservation.

Local company awarded construction contract

The Thompson-McCully-Ann Arbor Construction Co. of Belleville was the low bidder on projects for intersection improvements in Dearborn Heights, Westland, Livonia, Garden City and Redford Township the State Highway Commission announced.

The commission awarded the firm the road projects following a March-bid taking on 31 projects throughout the state.

The firm submitted two bids totaling $583,482. Work will be financed with funds from the federal TOPICS program to improve safety and capacity of existing roads and streets.

The low bid must be approved by the State Administrative Board before contracts can be awarded.

The Belleville firm was the lowest of three bidders ($598,112) for improvements including construction of turning lanes, crossover lanes and paving of 11.2 miles of M-153 (Ford Rd.) from the Washtenaw-Wayne county line (Napier Ave.) east to US-24 (Telegraph Rd.) in Westland, Garden City, and Dearborn Heights. Completion time was set at November, 1971.

The firm was also the lowest of eight bidders ($245,482) for intersection improvements including widening, paving and construction of turn lanes on Joy Rd. at US-24 and on Joy Rd. at Beech-Daly Rd.

The work project also includes addition of a fifth, or turning lanes on Inkster Rd. between North Hines Dr. and Joy Rd. in Dearborn Heights and Westland.

Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) reported this week that the House Public Works Committee has approved the $2 billion Randolph-McFall Accelerated Public Works Bill, designed to fight unemployment through federal funding of public works projects.

Congressman Ford, a co-sponsor of the bill, said that committee approval will make it possible for the legislation to come to the House Floor for consideration before the Easter Recess.

The bill, which has won broad support from local officials, industry and labor, would provide federal grants for approved public works projects in amounts up to 80 per cent of the project cost, or up to 100 per cent for local governmental units which have reached their effective taxing and bonding limits.

needed public works such as sewer facilities and water treatment plants.

"The funds would go to areas that need them most and for projects that are needed the most," Congressman Ford said.

"One criteria would be unemployment, with preference given to areas whose unemployment rate has exceeded the national average for at least six of the preceding 12 months. This would definitely include all of the Detroit metropolitan area, and all the communities in my Congressional District."

Congressman Ford pointed out the national unemployment rate for January and February was 6.6 per cent, higher than for any years since 1941, with the single exception of 1958. The Detroit area rate has been estimated at 14 per cent.

Congressman Ford said, "It is absolutely ridiculous, in this era of inflation and affluence, that so many Americans should be unable to find work. It is doubly tragic in that our nation has so many jobs that need doing."

"This legislation will provide the necessary impetus to solve both problems simultaneously. I can think of few better investments for our federal dollars."

Congressman Ford expressed the hope that both Houses of Congress will act speedily on the bill so that it can be put into effect as quickly as possible. Major sponsors are Congressman John McFall, of California, and Senator Jennings Randolph, of West Virginia.

Interest savings computed

The latest reduction in interest rates on home loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration will save a veteran or serviceman more than $3,000 on the average new home loan over a 30-year financing period.

Robert M. Fitzgerald, director of the Michigan VA Regional Office in Detroit, commenting on the reduction from 7 1/2 to 7 percent approved this month by Housing and Urban Development and VA, said the estimated saving is based on the $24,400 average loan on a new home.

Computed at 34 cents per $1,000, monthly savings on mortgage notes would be $8.30, or $2,988 over a 30-year period.

Cancer Society sets goal

The collection goal this year for the Wayne County Unit of the American Cancer Society is $300,000 according to Norman N. Robbins, the Unit President.

Traditionally, April is designated Cancer Control Month throughout the nation by the United States Congress.

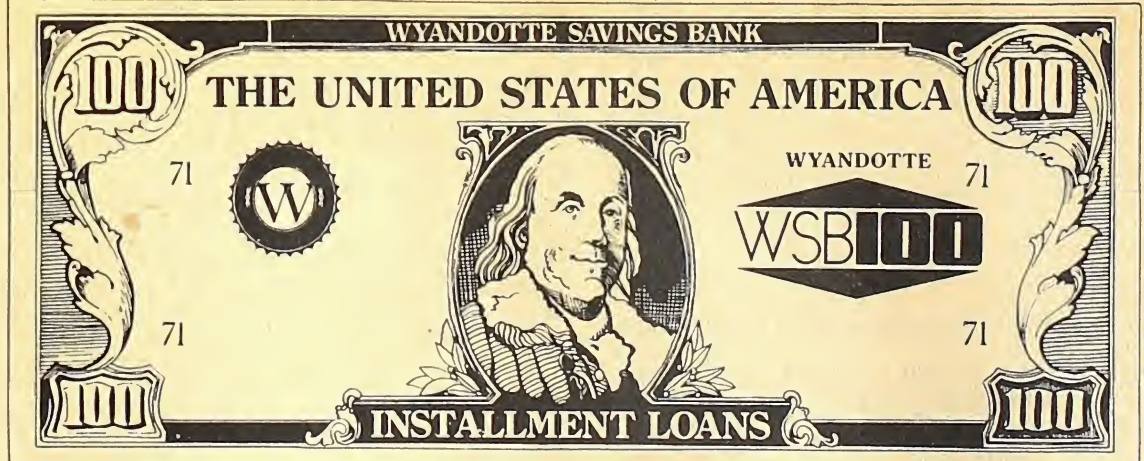

The primary fund raising activities will begin the first day of April. The week of April 16 through 30 has been reserved for the Residential phase of the Crusade.

"We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime, and it's up to us to tell everyone we can react, that the regular health checkups and early diagnosis can save lives", said Robbins.

"Everyone who believes health is beautiful is needed by Wayne County Unit of the American Cancer Society. We shall be urging the people of Wayne County to join this fight — to protect themselves with a checkup and others with a check to their American Cancer Society."

'Promise at Dawn' warm, sentimental

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

Jules Dassin's romantic and heavily perfumed adaption of Romain Gary's memoirs of his mother is sensibly leavened with a zesty dash of humor, but, like an overbred dog, nervous and twitching, has been overly edited into something which occasionally resembles a quivering mass. Cuts are often abrupt, spanning time and place without sufficient anticipation, leaving you wondering just where the people on the screen came from and what they are doing there. One cocktail party scene alone, riddled with frozen motion photography and distortion lenses resembles nothing so much as Auntie Mame on LSD.

Yet, gimmicked as it is, Dassin does not kill the warmth which flows between Romain and his quite unusual mother, from the boyhood in Leningrad and Krakow where the boy was lavished with a series of French, ballet and violin lessons, at none of which he was terribly good, while his mother supported them as an actress, a dress designer or anything else that came along; to France, the country of their dreams where Romain grew up to fight in World War II.

There are few ladies who can warm up a scene like Melina Mercouri and she does it in the grand style, with the positive manner of a personage even when they are freezing to death in a wintry Poland.

Miss Mercouri is magnificent; there is always 200 per cent of herself on the screen, inevitably larger than life and always subduing her co-stars even if they are, in this case, a series of actors playing her son at nine, 15 and grown, the latter being Assaf Dayan, in slightly understated but engaging performance. Dayan is the son of Gen. Moïse Dayan, the Israeli defense minister.

'Promise at Dawn' is warm and sentimental, if not always even-tempered. But it is often beautiful too, as when the dying mother writes hundreds of letters to be sent to her son, away at war, after her death.

COMING TO U-D — Elton John, British rock star, will appear at the University of Detroit Friday, April 16 at 8:30 p.m. For ticket information, call the University of Detroit ticket office.

'Trial by jury' slated

The Concert Choir and Chamber Orchestra of John Glenn High School, Westland, are presenting Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial By Jury," April 1, 2, and 3, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Admission is one dollar.

"Trial by Jury" is, strictly speaking, an opera, since there's no spoken dialog. It was Gilbert and Sullivan's first successful collaboration, and contains some of the best tunes and funniest lines they ever wrote," says Bruce Graden, the director.

The plot: The super-sweet Angelina (Linda Clark) is suing Edwin (Ron Decker) for breach of promise. Her expensive and hammy lawyer (John Stephens) doesn't get very far with the Learned Judge (Bill Blair), who is rather easily distracted by a pretty face. Finally, disgusted by all the complications and objections, he marries Angelina himself.

The 10-piece orchestra will be seated on stage, with the actors and singers. More than a hundred students are in the cast and crews. The public is invited.

The team returns in 'Priest's Wife'

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

By now it is a reasonably accepted ground rule that Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni are a team as much as Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn or Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne, although it would take a brave soul indeed to suggest that the caliber of the films turned out by the Italian duo are in any way equal to the English or American team.

Loren and Mastroianni in fact have become the foremost exponent of the Roman sudser, that great melange of violin and organ music, copious tears and trembling lips which was the primary stock of the Yiddish Theatre for 50 years. Remember that all-time charmer "Sunflower."

The current one is "The Priest's Wife," in which Miss Loren, having realized that her boy friend of four years duration is married, drains her emotions by wrecking his car and his body, then decides to end it all with pills. She is rescued from an attack of bad acting by phoning a telephone suicide squad where she latches on to the priest who seeks to console her.

After chasing him all over town and wearing him down, she finally convinces the priest, Mastroianni of course, that he is in love with her. After interminable efforts by the church to change his mind he decides to seek his release from holy orders and is ultimately called to Rome where he is bribed with a Vatican office, a promotion to monsignor and a taste of la dolce vita, church style. When his girl follows, with the news that she is pregnant which she never gets to tell him, she is met with the suggestion that she be his mistress "until the dispensation comes through but these things take time you know."

Since this is a typical Carlo Ponti-Mastroianni-Loren movie, which more isn't needed in the way of weighty opinions, beyond a single comment that, although Miss Loren occasionally demonstrates a bit of smouldering fire, of the type of which she is so devastatingly capable, Mastroianni displays little more emotion than one of the many statues which grace the Vatican.

Of more significant interest is the mere fact that such a film can be made in Italy today. The few effective moments in the film—a visit to a priest who left the church to marry and was ostracized and reduced to a drunken spectacle and a climactic scene with the dour and vengeful cardinals thronging to the dedication of a chapel, almost overwhelming the poor pregnant girl in their massive march—are decidedly anti-papist.

Ponti and his wife, Miss Loren, along pillared by the church and threatened with arrest in Italy because he was divorced when he married her, have obvious motives for such a film. One wonders whether such a film could do any business in Italy today; if not, let's hope it's rejected for the right reasons, of which there are plenty.

scene about town cap patric

AT MR. MIKE'S, THEY havva way of "getting to" ya. Honest. Of course, if you show up from Thursday through Sunday, Jan & Ron are playing the kinda stuff that softens ya up, anyhow. You know ... Folk Music ... Old Standards ... sweet songs. So you feel mellow already, right? And then, they take extra special care with your food. Because they always take extra special care to please folks. So your "Big Wheel" sandwich makes a guy feel like one! And now you're fulla Delmonico Steak and feeling like a big wheel ... you can tell the man the truth. So you say "I've been readin about MR. MIKE'S ... AND I just hadda come out to 35323 Ford Rd., here at the corner of Wayne Rd., in Westland. I just hadda. But, you know, I can't scratch up for the "Big Wheel Sandwich" ... "Well, don't you worry" sez Jimmy Cepenaka ... who's been accomodating folks for years 'n years! "We'll just write your name here on the wall, and you can pay us next time you're in." "HEY! Everyone will see it!" we pleaded. "No, no," sez the kind man. "We'll just hang your coat right up here on top of it ... so no one will notice" Do you believe all that? Well, that's not the only reason we go back again! Just ONE of the o-ther reasons: we're waitin' for you to ask, "Hey ... aren't you Cap Patric???"

GIRLS, WHEN THEY GO OUT TO DINE, some dress like Mother Hubbard. And some, they have a bolder look ... they dress more like her cupboard! Oh, you'll see ALL kinds in line, down at PICO'S TACOS, 8875 Telegraph, at Joy Rd., where a flaming torch sez THIS IS IT!! They line up for Tacos ... Burritos ... Tostadas ... Frijoles ... NOT just to be ogled, but it is a nice place to go when you crave the unusual. Whether you're girl watchin' or flavor huntin'. When I feel like I want to see or taste something different ... I go to Pico's to see young ladies of good taste ... or for a G.O.O.D. taste that I just can't get ennyplace else. Why I stress the girls, is: Pico's Tacos Diners are people who like the unusual. They dress a little nicer ... they live a little more ... they ... they eat a LOT better, than "ordinary" Ceetizens, si! If you want life to be the same every day ... without taste ... without excitement ... without meaning ... Senor, DON'T go to Picos. But, otherwise ...

WERE YOU HOLDING A GIRL'S hand at THE GOLDEN COIN?? queried my gal. "Oh Honey," I pleaded ... "it was only to keep 'er from eating my Fillet of Pickeral!!" You know how 'tis. You have to take firm measures with some of 'em! Deep in my heart with things like Helen-the-Captain, I often have thoughts of some of the beauties at The Golden Coin. In fact, I stop out to 1870 S. WAYNE RD., in Westland often, to enjoy same! Where can ya get a Fillet of Pickeral sprinkled with parsley flakes ... while you see pretty fillies that make you feel all parsley and flakey ... and come up with a logical excuse like that for Mamma at the same time?? EVERYBODY knows it is true. The music starts to play ... and the flow of refreshment does away with simple inhibitions ... and someone is just liable to reach for your order! Would I steer you wrong?? G'wan over Friday for Deep Sea Scallops ... or Lake Perch ... or Nippy-Shrimp-Sauce. Maybe MY gal will try to grab yer order. Hey, whatta time to haveta turn around and say "Aincho Cap Patric???"

THEY TELL THE STORY OF a lost Airman who came down with nothing but his parachute and a magazine he'd managed to grab while he was falling out of the plane. When found, he was tearing out pictures of spaghetti and stuffing them into his mouth!! "Is that dehydrated stuff any good?" asked Livingston. "It was that ... and the desire to get back to GHERARDI'S in Dearborn that kept me alive!" the fellow confided! I could picture myself ... just north of Michigan a bit, at 3447 S. TELEGRAPH and my strength would return!! Small wonder such a story makes the news! We ourselves lifted a Cocktail at Gherardi's, in the boy's honor! Not in all the lush, tropical, exotic jungle, he revealed, had he seen a plant to match Gherardi's Fiesta Fruit Tree. And the thought of their homemade Manicotti and Gnocci had filled him with the desire to live. Surely, with boys like this in the air ... and places like Gherardi's to keep you up in the air about delicious tastes ... our country is in good hands! And you're ALWAYS in good hands ... when you land at Pete & Mary Gherardi's place, at the corner of Carlyle!

YES!!! C-A-N TELL YOU the names of some of those gorjus dolls who bring your goodies to the table at THE IRON MASK INN, located at 28949 Joy Rd., in Westland. There's Cheryl Molloy ... and Marian Stanton ... and Cindy Bussey ... and Diane Bell ... and Lovely-Lily. Lily only loveley's at the Iron Mask Inn on weekends. Other times she communes with her girlfriend Sidney, who hazzakid named Psyche Schnelker ... honest, and when they dine at The Iron Mask ... I hate to tell the rest ... they call Lily G-e-o-r-g-e! Do you think all this is calculated to drive poor Writers to drink? But then, there're whole families who dine there (like Michael, Ruth, Russ, Lonnie, Frank, Linda, Cheryl and Taylor Hitchcock ... who lunched there with their Mom & Dad) and they don't even care if George is Lily. Because the service is SO good ... and the Food is SO good ... and the atmosphere is SO good ... that nothing else seems important! And while you're remembering names, mark down the "Square Root Of Nine" ... because they're playing their way to the top. But then, you'd expect to find extras at a place that has a Waitress named George ... who has a girlfriend named Sidney ...

THIS HUMBLE SOUL ... WHO HAS BEEN KNOWN (while under the affluence it seems) to get up and do a little dance ... on the table (once more, I apologize) ... had almost thought NEVER to sing again ... But you know what happened?? We went back to Ypsi straight to THE SEVEN SEAS SINGALONGS at 1435 E. Michigan (Just East of Harris) ... and this Gable guy out-Clark's the other Gable with that smile ... and you get enchanted by things like Singer-Organist Dee Greenfield's neon "Hot-Pants" ... or, if you're a lady, you get talked into feeling better by Dee's suave, handsome Husband, Bob ... and the microwave "radar" range seals the flavor into something special for you ... and p-r-e-t-y soon ... you get to singin' with the crowd ... and being careful not to get so happy you head for that table again! Then someone like this Kay Dudley comes around ... inna pair of sexylax ... and "R" Don Polhouse feels inspired to lend his voice to the singing. A famous Polhouse Dancer named Carol saunters past, wearing a badge that sez "Kiss me, I'm Irish" ... and OBOY, am I gettin' my voice back. Whatever bothers you ... EVEN if it's dancing on tables ... it'll disappear, at THE SEVEN SEAS. And that's only PART of the Story!

Renovation, new construction called jail problem solution

The solution to the problems at the Wayne County Jail, the Chairman of the County Board of Commissioners testified in court, is to renovate the present structure and supplement its use with construction of a minimum security annex.

This is the judgment offered by Board Chairman, Robert E. FitzPatrick, testifying in a highly unusual Circuit Court trial—now four weeks old—in which jail inmates filed suit protesting the detention facilities.

Several inmates of the jail, now housing 1,400 prisoners in quarters designed to accommodate 1,000, have charged that the 40-year old building is unworthy of renovation, and are demanding a new jail be built.

FitzPatrick, officially representing the Board of Commissioners before Judge Victor J. Baum, John D. O'Hair, and Richard M. Maher, the three-member panel hearing the case, said the solution he outlined would require cooperation from the City of Detroit as well as assistance, financial and otherwise, from State and Federal sources.

He mentioned the use of the Detroit House of Correction as a possible interim detention site, and raised the possibility of suing the State for help. He also suggested that Federal quarters at Milan might contribute toward a solution. Presenting the view of the Board for the first time in this case, FitzPatrick cited restrictions on County finances, and stated emphatically that other alternatives, whether court-ordered or not, would require taxpayers to approve a millage increase.

This was in reference to the fact that Wayne County by law is prohibited from deficit financing, and this year is still faced with unresolved labor negotiations which threaten a budget deficit.

At no time in 90 minutes of testimony did FitzPatrick, who has been Chairman for two and a half months, deny the major charges of the prosecution. He freely admitted substandard jail conditions, at times describing them as "bad" and "terrible".

However, FitzPatrick defended the Commissioners on basis of their actions during the past two years and by their current endeavors under his chairmanship.

During this period, he said, "The jail problem has probably received more money than any other department."

He pointed out that these allocations were carefully measured against other human needs of the County, such as those at Wayne County General Hospital and the Juvenile Youth Home, plus needs in the Health, Education, and Welfare category on which 60 percent of the County budget is spent.

FitzPatrick mentioned several measures undertaken by the Board to improve jail living conditions, among them is $1.5 million set aside for jail renovation, and a $250,000 appropriation for hospital care of prisoners.

Another early action allocated $800,000 toward relief of a crowded Recorder's Court docket. Since most crimes are committed in Detroit and the offenders sentenced in Recorder's Court, this experimental effort reduced the jail population, although only temporarily, said FitzPatrick.

He also said that the Board's Judiciary Committee has worked to have bail procedures changed so that low-risk defendants could be released on minimal bond. He indicated also that the Commissioners' Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee, has asked judges to simply order low-risk defendants to be held at the Detroit House of Correction, which would further reduce the jail population.

More recently, said FitzPatrick, the Commissioners tried to buy Crittenton Hospital for possible conversion into a jail annex, but were rebuffed by the reactions of surrounding residents. He said the same reactions were expected from residents around other sites considered, such as Providence and Herman Kiefer Hospitals.

FitzPatrick emphasized that relief of jail overcrowding is essential, regardless of whether short-range or long-term proposals are being considered. Interim facilities are needed to achieve either, he said.

Renovation of the jail cannot begin until some 150 to 300 prisoners are removed for the duration of repairs, and similar housing facilities are needed during construction of a new facility, a three or four-year prospect, said FitzPatrick.

He told of efforts now underway which could provide the interim needs. He explained that the County plans to lease two barracks at the Detroit House of Correction, an arrangement expected to house 150 prisoners. The County is also contemplating the direct purchase of the entire men's division at DeHoCo.

FitzPatrick testified that the Board's Planning and Capital Improvement Committee is giving long range attention to relief of jail conditions. Preliminary plans for a 500-inmate medium security jail on a site in Westland are already under consideration.

In concluding testimony,

FitzPatrick said that the present jail must be considered for renovation because of public awareness and resistance to the high cost of new construction. He said that if the County cannot find appropriate facilities, the next approach is to sue the State.

Mobile home loan interest set for GIs

The Veterans Administration announces that the rate of interest on G.I. loans to buy mobile homes has been set at 10.75 percent.

Purchase of mobile homes under the G.I. loan program was authorized for the first time by the Veterans Housing Act of 1970, and Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson says that 20,000 veterans are expected to make purchases during the first year of the program.

Johnson said that two-thirds of the loans would be granted to Vietnam era veterans.

VA will guarantee up to 30 percent of a loan for a mobile home, up to a maximum of $10,000 for the loan. Once the loan is paid the veteran is again eligible for a guaranteed loan on a conventional house, a guarantee that may go as high as $12,500.

NBD's four guideposts for better home financing.

Getting a mortgage to buy a home is serious business. It's only natural when you're making a down payment of several thousand dollars, and obligating yourself for years to come, to want assurance that you're acting in your own best interests. Here are four basic rules that will help.

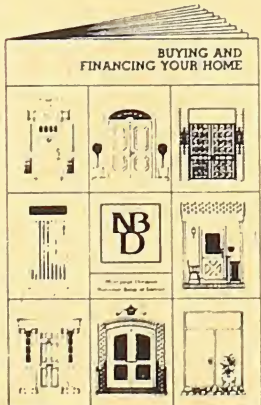

1. Make certain that you won't incur a stiff penalty if you elect to prepay the principal. At NBD, we're known for our liberal prepayment policy. If you prepay your existing NBD mortgage through the sale of your home, then secure a new mortgage from us to finance another house, there's no penalty at all.

2. Know ahead of time what your closing costs will be. NBD gives you an estimate well in advance; and we're rarely off the mark, so you won't run into any unpleasant surprises.

3. Strike the best balance between the size of your monthly payments and the rate at which you build equity. NBD will help you weigh these factors with full consideration for your particular financial circumstances.

4. Before you assume a seller's mortgage, be sure you're aware of any restrictions on prepayments to principal, special insurance requirements and the implications of assuming another person's liabilities.

At your nearby NBD office, you can pick up a copy of our new booklet—20 pages of facts and figures every home buyer needs to know. The bank to see is NBD. National Bank of Detroit.

Parents may fill in their local police and fire department numbers and point out this page to their children to familiarize them with the emergency numbers.

Telephone customers who need one or both of the other two area white pages directories—North and East—may obtain them by calling the local Michigan Bell business office.

Farmers should be familiar with preservation features

Farmers should become familiar with the history preservation features of the 1971 Set-Aside Program for feed grains and wheat, Nick Smith, chairman of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee has announced.

It should be understood that a participating farmer qualifies for his payments when he meets the set-aside requirements and maintains his conserving base. He may then devote the remaining eligible cropland on his farm to any crop he wishes.

Smith emphasized that although it is not necessary that wheat or feed grains be produced to earn a payment, the actual plantings of these crops do have an effect on future farm allotments and bases. If less than 45 per cent of the feed grain base and less than 90 per cent of the wheat allotment is planted, the farmer's 1972 base and allotment could be reduced by the amount of the underplanting, not to exceed a reduction of 20 per cent.

If no wheat or feed grains are planted in three successive years, the entire allotment and base is automatically dropped from the farm. As the size of the allotment and base are determining factors in computing farm payments, it is very important that farmers know the conditions under which they may be preserved.

Smith stated that in addition to planting the required percentage of the crop, a producer's allotment and base may be protected under the following conditions:

—A producer otherwise eligible for payments elects not to receive payments on the underplanted portion.

—An equivalent acreage of wheat is substituted for feed grains or feed grains are substituted for the underplanted wheat.

—A determination is made by the ASC county committee that a producer is prevented from planting because of drought, flood, other natural disaster, or a condition beyond his control.

—The farm does not participate, and an acreage equal to the underplanted acreage is maintained in vegetative cover. The acreage in vegetative cover must be in excess of the conserving base and application for this preservation must be made with the ASC county committee.

Smith added that full details, as they apply to individual farmers, can be obtained from any county ASCS office.

In closing, Smith stated that the final date for a producer to participate in the 1971 program is April 9.

A daughter, "Mara Essie" was born Thursday, March 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schmitt, 37855 Westvale St. The infant arrived at Wayne County General Hospital and is the eighth child of the Schmitts, and their fifth daughter. She weighed 5 pounds, 7 ounces.

The next regular meeting of the Romulus Mom's Club is scheduled for Monday, April 5, at the Romulus Progressive Club Hall on Ozga Rd. The meeting starts with pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m.

The Calvary Baptist Church on Ozga Rd. has several young people now serving in the armed forces. These include David England, son of the pastor; Jack Hoyle, Ronnie Garland, John Gevensky, Larry Moore and Penn Marshall.

Harvey Millar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kline of 30282 Cherry Ave. returned home from Annapolis Hospital a week ago Thursday and is now recovering from surgery on his leg.

He was able to return to his Freshman classes at Romulus Senior High School on Monday, using crutches and wearing a cast.

On Palm Sunday, April 4, morning worship will be held at the New Boston United Methodist Church at 9:30 a.m. and at the Romulus United Methodist Church at 11 a.m.

This will be special recognition day for all members of the Pastor, Parish relations committee and Finance committee. Rev. Frank Leineke is pastor of both churches.

Gerry Doede was honor guest at a combination birthday party and farewell prior to his leaving for the U.S. Marines recently.

The party, given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ball of Pennsylvania Rd. included a delicious buffet complete with two lovely cakes, one with pink elephants and the other with an American Eagle and shield complete with stars and stripes.

The cakes were especially made for the occasion by Mrs. Christian Fischer of Wayne Rd.

Local residents attending the party honoring Gerry were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crews and daughter, Rita; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flock and son, Frank, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Christian Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Don Lauzon.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bryan J. Shine of New Boston, Roland Barrette of Detroit and the Misses Jo Ann Neely and Jan C. Fischer of Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gondek of S. Huron River Dr. are back home after a most enjoyable two weeks vacation in the Bahamas.

The Gondeks report enjoying ideal weather in the seventies there and of seeing much of the islands' scenery, including the sea gardens, aquariums, old castles. They made their headquarters at the Anchorage Hotel in Nassau.

The WSCS and official board of the United Methodist Church, Olive Street, are happy with the way folks turned out and worked Saturday to prepare the church and sanctuary for Easter. They say "thank you" to all who participated.

A baby daughter "Melissa Ann" was born at Beyer Hospital, Ypsilanti Saturday, March 27, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Belaire of Goddard Rd. (She's the former Joy Rhodes of Belleville).

The infant weighed 6 pounds, 13 ozs. The Belaires also have a son, Robbie, 16 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Morgan of Romulus Ave. attended the play "Crucible" recently at Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, Illinois, and saw their son, Michael, play the part of Giles Corey.

Stephen Morgan, son of the Alex Morgans, was promoted recently to SP-5 in Vietnam where he is serving with the armored cavalry regiment of the U.S. army. He expects to return to the "States" in July.

An ex-president is provided with a lifetime pension of $25,000 a year, free mailing privileges and office space, plus $65,000 a year for office help.

Tigers place 8 on mythical team

Belleville paces All-Area

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Once upon a time high school swim coaches thought of swimming as "a winter sport". They got their teams ready for competition one month before the season opener.

That myth has been shattered.

Preps, with their eyes on the coveted state titles, now practice 12 months if not at school with swim clubs and the results reflect their hard work.

And 18 hard-working youngsters are honored today by coaches who named them to the 1971 Daily Eagle All-Area Swimming & Diving team. They come from Cherry Hill, two-time Tri-River Conference title winner; Belleville, reigning Western Wayne Invitational king; Livonia Franklin; John Glenn and Garden City East, and West.

Eight of the swimmers were drafted from Coach Sam Vicchy's outstanding team at Belleville. They include the Susterka brothers — Brad and Barry, Kim Stone, Jim Ackron, Kevin Owen, Curt Cullin and Jeff Fry.

From Livonia Franklin are Tom Herbert, Tom Brynn and Mike Burke, while Cherry Hill is represented by Chuck Terschke and Paul Sheridan.

John Glenn is represented by diver Dave Holloway and Paul Barbu, a sophomore, while East has Bob Meder and Chris Waronek in the mythical lineup. West sends its qualified soph Rick Burlingame.

Burlingame and Barbu have outstanding careers ahead of them, according to their coaches.

Rick, a 15-year-old who holds the WW Invitational and the Tri-River Conference crowns in the 100-yard backstroke, has set the school record in the event at 1:00 event.

"He is an outstanding prospect," said Coach George Hanosh, "and we are looking for much better things from him in the next two years."

Barbu, in his first varsity year on Coach Larry McConnell's team, captured first place in the WW in the 100-yard butterfly and also placed first in the Garden City East Invitational, taking both the butterfly and breaststroke event.

In his initial varsity year, the 15-year-old swimmer has compiled a total of 110 points — and he has two more years of competition ahead of him.

The sophomore will team with Franklin's Tom Herbert and Tom Brynn and East's Meder to form the All-Area 200-yard medley relay. Brynn, a senior who has three years of varsity experience behind him, was a member of the Northwest Suburban Conference medley team. His teammate Herbert, also a three-year varsity man, co-captained Larry Teeham's Patriots this season, earning all-league recognition in the medley.

Meder climaxes an outstanding prep career as a member of Ron Clifton's team. In his wake, Meder leaves a score of records, setting marks in the 200-yard medley relay, 200-free, 200-yard individual medley, 400-yard freestyle. He also was a member of the record-setting 400-yard freestyle relay.

He helped to shatter the Western Wayne meet record, for the 200-yard medley relay and has earned a host of medals. He was All-Mid-

Wayne League for three consecutive seasons and All-Area for the past two years. The Panther captain, Bob also was voted the team's Most Valuable swimmer.

Equally impressive is Cherry Hill's Chuck Terschke who holds down the 200-yard freestyle berth on this year's team. Holder of five varsity records and three pool records as well as the Tri-River Conference marks, Terschke has covered the 200-free at 5:54.

He also placed first in the 200-yard freestyle at both the WW and league meets and was crowned league champ in the 100-yard freestyle. A member of the All-League since 1969, Terschke was picked for All-Area honors last year.

Chuck has scored 127 points for Coach Jerry Pawloski's team, helping the Spartans win in the relays six times as well as picking up 17 individual victories.

Ackron, holder of Belleville's record for the 200-yard individual medley, qualified for the state finals in that event with a 2:11.0 effort. He placed first in the 200 I.M. at the WW Invitational Jim's only a junior and will be back next year.

Teammate Stone had the fastest time in the area for the 50-yard freestyle, stroking a 23.8 for the distance. He competed in the state finals as a member of the Tibers' 200-yard medley relay team. He received two gold medals at the Western Wayne, winning the 50-free and as a member of the winning 400-yard freestyle relay team.

Barry Susterka and Glenn's Dave Holloway were the coaches' choices for the All-Area divers.

Barry, a 17-year-old junior, had been a member of the varsity squad for three years and qualified this year for the state meet where he placed 11th in a field of 36 divers. He holds the school record and captured the WW meet in record fashion. He was runnerup in the Suburban Six Conference.

Holloway is also the record-holder at Glenn with a total of 207.95 points. A member of the Rocket varsity squad for time at 1:46.5 to take the honors as the best in the 200 yard medley relay event. The foursome is being honored as the best in their event as part of this year's All-Area swimming selections.

three years, he has placed first in six meets and second five times this year. He was the winner at the GC East Invitational and was runnerup at the WW.

Franklin's Burke has carded a 57.6 for the 100-yard butterfly to earn a spot on the team. He also holds the school record in that event and was an All-League performer in the medley relay.

A member of the Patriots' varsity team for three years, received gold medals in both the 100 yard freestyle and as a member of Belleville's freestyle relay team which took top honors at the WW meet.

Like Fry, Cullin is also a junior who has impressive credentials. He won the Suburban Six Conference title in the 400-yard freestyle. He had a 4:12 clocking in the event which he was chosen for on the All-Area team. Curt also was in the foursome that in both the breaststroke and the 100-yard butterfly.

A member of the All-League team for the past two years, Sheridan, with 117 points, is the Spartans' second leading scorer.

The freestyle relay team has the potential of 3:31.0 which would put it among the top 10 times in the state.

Making up the team are three Belleville swimmers: Terry Mills, Kevin Owen, Brad Susterka and Waronek, of Garden City East.

Waronek, a senior, has three years of varsity experience and holds the school record for the 200-yard medley relay. He helped the 200-yard medley relay and the 400-yard freestyle relay teams set school records. The medley foursome won the Western Wayne Invitational. He also was runnerup in the 100-yard freestyle event and was the team's leading scorer with 106 points.

Brad is a junior who also has three varsity seasons tucked under his belts. The team captain, he reached the state finals with the 400-yard freestyle relay team and also holds the record in the 100-yard backstroke.

Mills and Owen also are juniors who will help form the nucleus of a powerful returning Tiger squad. Both 17, Mills and Owen help make up the Tiger foursome that won the 400-yard freestyle relay team that won the WW meet.

Belleville coach is tops

In the incredible span of one year Sam Vicchy forged a winner out of Belleville High School's swimming team.

And in one season his Tigers piled up a 15-3 over-all record which was the best record in 14 years at the high school.

Add to this a second place finish in the Suburban Six Conference and a victory at the Western Wayne Swimming & Diving Invitational and there are enough reasons why he was named as the Coach of the Year.

Vicchy, 31, a native of Pennsylvania who earned his degree in chemistry and biology from Slippery Rock State College, also realizes that winning seasons "may be a thing of the past in swimming for a couple of years, for us."

Two good reasons for this assumption is that Dearborn, the recently crowned Class A state champs, and Edsel Ford, another swim power, have moved into the expanded Suburban Six (to be called the Eight) Conference.

"We welcome the competition that these outstanding teams have to offer," said Vicchy. "I have always stressed to my kids that it is better losing to a very good team and learning something, than winning and not gaining anything."

Sam's brother was indirectly responsible for launching the Belleville mentor's swim coaching career.

"My brother was a swim coach in Erie and I was coaching basketball at the time when one of the educators asked, 'Why don't we get a brother rivalry going' and before I knew it I was appointed as a swim coach at East High in Erie."

Sam also followed in his brother's footsteps to Kent State University where the older Vicchy was head swim coach and Sam his assistant. While assisting his brother, Sam was also head swim coach at Kent State High School, a position he left last year to join Belleville's staff.

Coach Vicchy was disappointed — despite the 15-3 record — of not being able to sew up the league title this season. (Livonia Bentley won it while Belleville, though it finished third in the league meet, finished second in the over-all standings.)

"I thought it was a gratifying season," he said, "except for not winning the league title."

"But I feel we are on the right track," he added.

Sam and wife, Susan, recently had an addition to the family. A daughter, Debbie, was born to them on Friday, March 19. It was their third girl. Other members of the family include Lorrie, 6, and Tammie, 5.

2 All-Staters lead All-Area picks

Davis, Faust among state's best

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Two lanky cagers who rewrote almost every record in the basketball ledgers at their respective high schools and who recently were chosen to coveted All-State berths form the nucleus of the 1971 All-Area basketball team.

Nate Davis of Romulus, and Eartha Faust of Inkster led this year's selections which, for the first time in recent history, bears the names of two All-Staters.

Rounding out the mythical team are: Dave Jackson (Garden City East), Garrade Pettus (Belleville) and Butch Suemnick (New Boston Huron).

Davis is an 18-year-old, 6-5, 190-pound senior center who led Romulus to a district title and the regional finals after finishing second in the tough Twin Valley Conference.

With a total of 575 points, he averaged 27.4 points per game. He also hauled down 512 rebounds for an average of 24.4. He attempted 370 field goals and made 226.

Nate has rewritten almost every individual record at Romulus High School this year and when you consider that most of these records were held by either Lloyd Ward, 1970 Michigan State University captain, or Shaler Halimon, presently playing for Portland Trailblazers in the NBA you realize that Davis' records and accomplishments mean something.

Interpreted by pro and college scouts, they mean that Nate has a great cage future ahead of him.

"The amazing statistics he compiled," says Romulus Coach Dave Court, "is astonishing more so when you figure that they were accomplished against the best basketball competition in the Metro area." (Romulus competes in the Twin Valley where state powers such as River Rouge, Ecorse and Willow Run make their home).

Faust is a long shot artist who lured college scouts from across the nation to see him play. This 6-3, 170-pound senior who has led the Vikings to three consecutive Mid-Wayne Conference championships and district titles, made believers out of skeptics as he chalked up 32.5 points per game in his 21-game season.

"I have not seen a better shot in the state this season than Eartha," said Inkster Coach George Thompson. "He's hit for more than 30 points in 14 of his 22 games and on two separate occasions he collected 44 and 42 points."

"You also must remember that he was usually on the bench when we had a sufficient edge upon our rivals. He could have easily hit over 50 points in many of those games if we had let him in there to the finish."

Jackson is a 6-3½ junior whose excellent shooting touch and unusual fallaway shot frustrated all of his opponents and helped him to score 486 points in a 17-4 won-lost Garden City East season.

Dave, a southpaw pivotman, already has the scoring average of any East High cager, nipping former East great, Mike Maciasz (23.0) when he wound up with a 23.1 this season.

"Dave has tremendous spring and timing," said Coach Billy Joe Young. "And he's the best outlet passer to start a fast break I have ever seen."

When Jackson and two others from the starting five back next year, East will again be a serious contender in the area if not the state.

Pettus is the most versatile of the first string. An outstanding athlete who was picked All-Area in football as well as track, the 18-year-old senior paced Belleville in both scoring and rebounding this season.

The team's co-captain, Garrade tried 325 field goals and made 150 for 45 percent. He averaged 19.6 points per game in the 19 games he started. He also hauled down 205 rebounds for 10.8 per game.

With 375 points to his credit, Pettus became the holder of Belleville scoring record and he was given the nod for the Tiger MVP award.

Suemnick is a polished cager who thrives the most under pressure.

Earning varsity status as a sophomore, Suemnick quickly established himself as one of the better shots in the area, rounding out his prep cage career with 361 points for 18 games or 20.1.

At one span in the season, Butch capitalized upon 25 of 26 shots at the free throw line to set a school record in that category.

"He has tremendously quick hands," said first-year Coach Marty Hotvedt, "and he's the best shot I have seen in this area for that age group."

Butch also has earned letters in football and baseball.

Injuries don't stop

All-Area 2nd string

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

You usually don't find prep cagers who missed basketball games because of illness making the grade as All-Area team members for, it's usually "out of sight, out of heart."

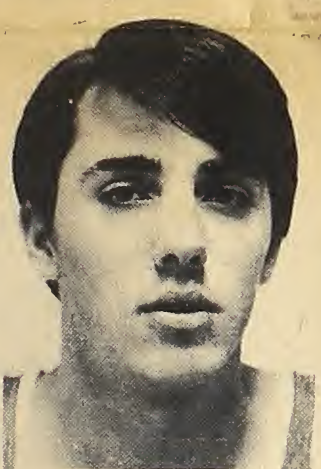

A southpaw who captained this year's Chiefs, Randy piled up an 18.0 scoring average to climax his three year varsity cage career.

Leszczynski was the "big man" in Garden City West's cage strategy. The 6-5, 205-pound center, led Coach Chris wood, Alverson paced Robichaud to its first district championship in recent years and if it wasn't for a guy by the name of Nate Davis who dumped in a last second decisive basket, Robichaud could have made it to the regional finals.

But in the case of four of the five selections for this year's All-Area second team, the ailing cagers left an indelible impression that led to their selection.

Honored on this year's squad are Randy Gorham (New Boston Huron), Dennis Leszczynski (Garden City West), Jim Alverson (Robichaud), Gary Nustad (Garden City West) and Marty Miller (Belleville).

All except Nustad were out of their respective lineups during the season for one reason or other.

Gorham managed to play 16 games for Coach Marty Hotvedt's Chiefs because of illness and injury, he missed three.

"When Randy was sick we lost," said Coach Hotvedt, "it's as simple as that. And that's how important he was to our team this year. We had to count on his ability to break full-court presses and he was our floor general. Without him we had trouble beating teams we have previously whipped by 20."

Babler's Tigers to an unprecedented third consecutive Tri-River Conference championship and a 16-3 overall record.

Dennis muscled his way under the board to haul down 106 offensive rebound and 167 defensive rebounds. He scored 346 points in 18 encounters for a 19.2 averaging, missing a game when he was injured late in the season.

"He made us title contenders," said Coach Babler. "And we went to him when we were in trouble. Without him in the lineup, we were in trouble."

Alverson, a slick, fast-moving guard who is not only a deft ball-handler but an outstanding shot, is the most exciting ball-layer to come out of Dearborn Heights Robichaud in recent years.

The 5-11 senior who has three years of varsity experience behind him, made All-Area as a sophomore and hasn't been removed since. Sporting a 20.5 average in his 15 appearances on the hard-

Sideline late in the season because of mumps, he missed four games. However, he recovered in time to help the Bulldogs to a winning year. "He was our top scorer," said Coach Owen Sudman. "When he was in the lineup, we could compete with the best of them, when he was sick we had to quickly make adjustments."

Unlike his counterparts, Nustad was a consistent performer and was able to escape the injury bug. Nustad's acuity was playmaking, a job he enjoyed for the last two seasons on a varsity squad that had won three straight titles, district championships and even traveled as far as a state semifinal game two years ago.

Deceptive, with a keen knowledge of the game, Gary came on strong also in the latter part of the season as a scorer as well.

Miller is the only junior to break the second string All-Area team. He also missed two games because of the illness. Scoring at a 15.5 clip, Marty was very impressive at the free throw line where he hit 68 percent of the chances offered (90 of 132). He also sank 84 of his 100 shots attempted from the floor for a hefty 46 percent.

A co-captain, Miller is one asset which should paid off in winning dividends when the Tigers gather next season.

BILLY JOE YOUNG

Coach of Year

East's Billy Joe Young is top cage coach

"He did the most with what he had and this is why I would choose Billy Joe Young coach of the year," said a rival coach.

And that's about the way the other coaches felt about the successful Garden City East High mentor who led his team to a share of the Mid-Wayne Conference championship, a district title and into the regional finals.

East, which went 17-4 on the season, when a team of relatively obscure cagers proved they were a power to be reckoned with during the 1970-71 campaign. At the end of the season there were few who didn't know the names of Dave Jackson, Greg Puishes, Jack Hayes, Jeff DeHarte and Mike Roller.

For his outstanding contribution to area basketball, the Daily Eagle is honored to name Billy Joe Young as its Coach of the Year.

It isn't the first time such recognition has come to the 39-year-old cage strategist. He earned the award in 1964 and during his 10 year coaching tenure at East, he has been given the recognition five times by this and other newspapers.

What made this year's Panthers a winning team?

"It's hard to put my finger on it," said Young. "But I do feel that it was excellent team work and the willingness of all of the players to sacrifice for the good of the team."

EASTER

Earth responds to lure of spring
Suddenly each living thing
Emerges from its tomb
Of Winter's sepulchre of gloom.
Flowers bloom in grand array
To praise God in their humble way;
Returning birds, on fleeting wing,
Their joyous message sing.
Once, naked trees, in verdant dress,
Respond to spring's soft caress,
The quivering, tender leaves,
O'er earth, protective blanket, weaves.
And, just the gift of being
With eyes designed for seeing
Beauty of spring time, everywhere
God's bounty, we all share.
The glory of each Easter time,
Expression of God's love, sublime.
Reminder, for us all to pray
For Peace on Earth, this Easter Day

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

A prominent firm of psychologists ask this question when screening and examining employee applications for their clients. "Of all the men you know, have known, met or heard of, what one man would you most like to be like?" Explain why.

Reports indicate this question brings in a lot of different answers and peculiar reasons. Selections include Grandpa, Dad, Uncle John, Cousin Tim, and so on in an apparent effort to tie in a helpful family trait...or affiliation. Other applicants select men such as Churchill, Lincoln and other historical greats. Some select sports, business or political personalities.

Obviously of course, the psychologists are interested in the "reasons why" not so much in the selection itself. The reasons for the selections also vary greatly. Accomplishments, achievements, materialistic success, untarnished reputation, character and other attributes are mentioned as reasons.

It is an interesting question. How would you answer it? Who would you select? Why? Watch for our selection next week. You may - or may not - be surprised!...

Belleville salutes her 'Queen of the Kitchen'

Marjorie Easto wins crown in 10th Edison competition

Belleville has a new queen!

And though she could easily qualify for any beauty contest (she's tall, willowy and very pretty), this time the winner was crowned for her culinary talent.

Because of her prowess and imagination in the kitchen, Mrs. Patrick (Marjorie) Easto of 250 Liberty Street, Belleville, now holds the 1971 title in the Detroit Edison Company's annual cooking contest.

A teacher-counselor for the blind in seven Western Wayne County school districts, Mrs. Easto was crowned "Queen of the Kitchen" March 24 at a luncheon following Detroit Edison's 10th Annual Cook-off for Women Who Work. Doing the honors for the Company was Edison Board Chairman Walter L. Cislser.

The contest is sponsored each year by Edison as a salute to women who live in Southeastern Michigan who are employed fulltime outside their homes. On hand to witness the coronation were the Top Ten Working Women of 1971, named recently by the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce; the former contest winners; and area newspaper women.

Wearing a smart navy culotte suit (not hotpants, the winner insisted) Mrs. Easto chose as her grand prize, an avocado top-of-the-line model electric range.

Mrs. Easto's crown is the result of her "Rice Potpourri" entry, one of more than 300 submitted in the month-long contest. The recipe, she says, is based on a dish she and her husband especially enjoyed while dining at an Amsterdam restaurant. Combining a most unusual assortment of foods, the casserole includes shrimp, bacon bits, eggs, peanuts, coconut, pineapple, cheese, and other ingredients.

At the European restaurant, Mrs. Easto explained, a patron is served a large plate of rice accompanied by some 23 other mixtures to add to it. And though it sounds like a most unlikely combination, the tastes and textures turn out to be very compatible.

Since the contest rules specify a 'one-dish meal', Mrs. Easto selected only her favorites from the smorgasbord of 23 side dishes and transformed them into a hot casserole of layered rice.

A newcomer to Belleville, Mrs. Easto and her husband moved here from Syracuse, New York where she taught third grade children who were blind and emotionally disturbed. Her husband, Pat, is associated with both the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University. At the UM he is in research and at EMU he is on the faculty teaching methods and statistics in the sociology department.

Mrs. Easto is currently teaching blind and partly-sighted children in the Detroit Downriver area with her office in Taylor and with Van Buren Public Schools the farthest west in her area.

BELLEVILLE'S WINNER - Mrs. Patrick (Marjorie) Easto of 250 Liberty Street is Detroit Edison's 1971 Queen of the Kitchen. She was crowned at a luncheon March 24 following the 10th Annual Cook-off for Women Who Work. Edison Board Chairman Walker L. Cislser was present to do the honors. Mrs. Easto, a teacher-counselor for the blind in seven Western Wayne County school districts, is shown with her grand prize, a top-of-the-line model electric range which she chose in avocado.

Mrs. Drysdale enacts skit at Home Arts Club meet

The March meeting of the Home Arts Club was held at North Junior High School with president Jan Sierota conducting the business. Eighteen members answered roll call with one guest, Gwen Liebler, introduced.

The nominating committee for the April election was announced with Virginia Turney serving as chairman and Flo Hudge, Elaine Habel and Mary Kosin assisting.

Mary Anne Hudge, just in from Nassau, told of her week-long vacation with the Students International Club of the University of Michigan.

Program chairman, Charlotte Budd, distributed recipes which had been submitted at the autumn luau and which had been typed and run off by Mildred Baker.

Mary Ann Drysdale from Belleville High School's English Department was guest speaker for the evening and presented a clever skit concerning a bride-to-be and all the advice she receives concerning what to look for in a husband from friends. Mrs. Drysdale enacted all the roles.

Using a St. Patrick's Day color scheme for their table and serving hot fudge cream puffs, hostesses for March were Kathy Miller, chairman, Diana Moriarty, Vera Nollf, Sharon Richendollar, and Jackie Rider.

The regular April meeting is to be changed since it conflicts with Easter vacation. Members will receive postal cards notifying them of the correct date. Those attending are to bring along samples of their hobbies or handicrafts. A demonstration of macrame (the art of tying knots) will also be presented.

Nabbs honeymoon in Bahamas

New residents of Belleville since their return from a honeymoon trip to Georgetown in the Bahama Islands are the newly wed Delmar C. Nabbs.

The former Lanette M. Kubitsky of Wayne became Mrs. Nabbs in an early evening ceremony at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Westland. The Rev. Robert A. Baer officiated the double ring rite with organist Marie Spaude playing traditional wedding selections.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kubitskey of Lotz Rd., Wayne, was escorted to the altar by her father.

She wore a gown of white peau de soie designed with a high-collared neckline appliqued with lace, and lace banded the shoulderline and high waistline of the bodice. Lace also trimmed the modified bishop sleeves of the gown, and outlined a panel on the slightly belled skirt that ended in a chapel train.

A peal headpiece held the bride's bouffant veil, and she carried a cascade of white carnations and orchids with greenery.

Mrs. Gaylene Robertson, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor, wearing a gown of her own creation. It was an empire style in forest green crepe with gold trim and pearls accenting the neckline and banding the empire bodice. Her headpiece was in the form of a bow of crepe with a gold and pearl center knot.

The bridesmaids also wore gowns created by the matron of honor, designed in the same style. They were Miss Ranetta Kubitskey, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Peter Eglington.

The attendants completed their ensembles with bouquets of coral-colored miniature carnations with matching satin streamers.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nabbs of Barton St., Westland, asked Michael J. Reddy of Garden City, to be best man. Ushers for the ceremony were Albert Young of Detroit, and Robert Cavin, also of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kubitskey wore a dress of beige crepe and chiffon, matching accessories and her flowers were pink roses. Mrs. Nabbs chose a dress and coat of pink silk shantung and her flowers were pink roses.

Frozen Alaska Sundaes

It's bridal shower time and this heriborned ice cream package expresses the festive mood beautifully. It looks as if you toiled over it for hours, but is actually very quick and easy to make. With only two basic ingredients, a quart carton of ice cream and a container of frozen whipped topping, you have the start of Alaska Sundae, an elegant dessert for any party. Simply remove the ice cream block from its container, tint the thawed frozen whipped topping with a party color, and in a wink you have a ready-made frosting. For planned occasions it can be made the day before and the frosting fluffiness will still be there when your guests arrive. Here is a dessert you can dress up or down depending on the occasion and, of course, your time. There is no fussing with beating or shaking to prepare Birds Eye Cool Whip Non-Dairy Whipped topping. All your energy can be focused on the creation of garnishes in the form of flowers, rosettes, or borders for your party affair. For a quick sauce you might want to spoon a fruit mixture over the individual slices -- try adding sliced bananas to thawed frozen mixed fruit in quick thaw pouch.

Alaska Sundae

2 cups (or one 4-1/2-oz. container) frozen whipped topping, thawed
Few drops red food coloring (optional)
1 quart vanilla ice cream
Banana Fruit Sauce

Tint whipped topping with food coloring. Remove ice cream from container and place on chilled serving plate. Frost with whipped topping, spreading with spatula. If desired, reserve 1/2 cup of the whipped topping, tint a darker shade with food coloring. Pipe through pastry bag fitted with tip to form ribbon and bow on top. Slice and serve with Banana Fruit Sauce. Makes 8 servings.

Banana Fruit Sauce

2 packages (10 oz. each) frozen mixed fruit in quick thaw pouch
2 bananas, sliced
Thawed mixed fruit as directed on package. Stir in banana slices. Serve immediately. Makes about 2 cups sauce.

SIMPLE AND SCRUMPTIOUS - A quart brick of ice cream and banana slices over individual servings. Or set out a variety of ice cream sauces for individual preferences.

Father Alexander Wytrowski heard the couple renew their nuptial vows at a ceremony in St. Stephen's Catholic Church, New Boston, where the couple was married 25 years ago.

The Pustelak's only son, Ronald, was host at the reception which followed at the P.N.A. Hall, Belleville, where a Polish-style dinner was served. The four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a silver 25 and accented with turquoise icing, was the work of Karen Bogedain of Ida.

Some 125 friends and relatives from Flint, Bryon, Gregory, Riverview, Detroit, New Boston, Willis, Walled Lake, Belleville, and Ypsilanti signed the guest book circulated by Sharon Zatirka and Denise Hebda.

How true!

WATSEKA, ILL., REPUBLICAN: "Do you remember when the worst thing that could happen in a man's life was to be poor? Well, that's about to be a thing of the past. Today, you can get subsidized housing, health and dental care, university scholarships and many other welfare benefits if you are poor enough. All you need, to enjoy the advantages of a good life, is proof that you are disadvantaged."

Traditional bacon

When you serve bacon Easter morning, you are faithfully following tradition as well as pleasing diners. From an old English history come these lines -- "It was the unbroken custom to serve, at certain seasons, a particular dish . . . for instance, a gammon of bacon at Easter."

Consider care of knits when buying

The "buy now, care later" attitude of many consumers often causes disappointment with knit garments, says Bernetta Kahabka, clothing specialist for the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service.

"Proper care is crucial to the life and appearance of any knit fabric," she says. "And the consumer who ignores care instructions is likely to ruin an otherwise useful and attractive garment."

A major problem, she continues, is the tendency of knits to shrink or lose their shape.

shape-keeping quality). But this is impossible, Miss Kahabka points out. The more extensibility, the less dimensional stability, and vice versa.

The design and fit of the garment should allow freedom of movement without stretching the fabric so much that it sags or bags. It should also include a certain shrinkage allowance, she says.

Some manufacturers allow for shrinkage in varying percentages, depending on the fiber content, type of knit and the kind of garment. (For example: one percent shrinkage in a cotton knit T-shirt; four percent in an acetate jersey single knit; and eight percent in a novelty knit.) With this in mind, buy garments with an "easy" original fit. A snug-fitting dress might not fit you beyond the first cleaning.

The best care instructions for knits are those on the hangtag or label. Specific care instructions for a knit fabric are more vital than for a woven fabric since knits are more stretchable.

"Only" is an important word in care instructions, according to Miss Kahabka. If a label says, "Dryclean Only," it means exactly that. And the term "completely washable" doesn't mean you can wash it any way without reservation. For instance some polyester or nylon double knit fabrics may be successfully laundered in a regular wash cycle, but those with trouser or pleat creases will retain them better in medium washing and drying temperatures.

Some other procedures to know for cleaning knits by any method are these:

- (1) Close hooks and eyes and other fastenings to avoid snags.
- (2) When pressing, use low temperatures and light pressure to avoid edge marks and shiny surfaces.
- (3) To avoid stretching on hangers, store knit garments flat, especially for seasonal storage.

After motoring throughout Florida, they stopped at the home of former Garden City residents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller in Murry, Kentucky.

Returnable bottles haven't caught on yet

The idea of resurrecting returnable bottles hasn't caught on yet in many area supermarkets.

Most major markets put back on the shelves three weeks ago in response to demands from environmentalists, but buyers apparently still prefer the throwaway variety.

One exception is the Wrigley's store located on Wayne Rd. in Westland. Manager Chuck Hainley claims that in his market returnables are running near fifty per cent, with non-return bottle sales dropping off noticeably.

Elsewhere, however, markets have not had the same type of response.

McMaster-Keller Associates, public relations firm for Wrigley's Markets indicates that 50 per cent is as high as any store's returns have been.

On the other hand, the firm says, more stores are showing deposit returns as low as ten per cent.

Ed Deeb, executive director of the Associated Food Dealers of Greater Detroit says the throwaways are generally far ahead. "The returnable bottle isn't having much effect on the consumer."

He said overall the throwaway bottles are out-selling deposit bottles three to one.

The A&P Food Store in Belleville reports that sales of returnables seem to be picking up, aided by special sales in some brands which save customers as much as 16 cents a six pack. A&P and the other major chains stock most major brands of soft drinks in both types of bottles.

In Wayne, where a city ordinance is forcing markets to have non-returnable bottles off the shelves by January; sale of deposit bottles apparently started strong and tapered off.

"We still are getting a lot of deposit bottles back," said Leo Davey, assistant Manager of the Farmer Jack market on Michigan "but we're not selling a lot of them any more."

Wayne's Chatham Super-market reports that while the chain's management is thinking about experimenting with bottles, they have not done so yet.

Plans for new poverty funds for Romulus, Sumpter studied

A plan designed to revive the flow of federal anti-poverty funds into eight Wayne County localities, including Inkster, Romulus, and Sumpter, is before the County Board of Commissioners for final action.

The plan, recommended by the board's Economic Opportunity Committee after numerous meetings with federal officials, was given tentative approval March 19. It will be up for final action at the next meeting of the board on April 1.

The committee recommended that the board approve "in principle" a new non-profit corporation to operate the economic opportunity program in Wayne County outside Detroit. The Committee reported that the Chicago regional office of the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) has indicated the non-profit corporation is the only acceptable structure.

Federal funding which amounted to $776,000 last year, was not renewed after it expired last Nov. 30. Wendel Verduin, regional OEO director, charged that the program was "generally ineffective" under the existing structure and would have to be revamped in order to be refunded.

As a result, Neighborhood Action Centers in eight localities were closed and some 90 employees were laid off. The centers were located in Ecorse, Highland Park, Inkster, River Rouge, Romulus, Sumpter, Taylor and Hamtramck.

The Board of Commissioners appropriated $40,000 which kept the centers open through December while an unsuccessful effort was made to reverse the federal decision.

Under the plan, the non-profit corporation would be designated to operate the program by the Board of Commissioners. The board would have the right to withdraw its designation "at any time the board felt the program was not operating effectively," the board's committee reported.

One proposed structure for the non-profit corporation would consist of a 36-member board of directors to set policy and oversee the program.

Board members would include the seven mayors and one township supervisor from the eight "target areas," four members of the Board of Commissioners, 16 elected representatives of the poor, and eight representatives of various organizations.

After a trip to Chicago, Roscoe L. Bobo, of Ecorse, D-District 18, chairman of the Commissioners Committee on Economic Opportunity, reported that the regional OEO was willing to consider other proposed structures for the non-profit corporation. Thus his committee recommended "in principle" endorsement of the general concept.

The corporation "would be solely responsible for funds received and programs approved," Bobo's committee reported. It would be eligible for 75 percent federal funding, with the 25 percent local share consisting of cash or staff services.

Census Bureau interviews

Questions on consumer buying and home improvement expectations will be asked by representatives of the Bureau of the Census in this area during April. Hobert A. Yerkey, director of the Bureau's regional office, Detroit, reported.

Census Bureau interviewers will ask householders about any plans to buy a house, a car, and major household appliances during the next year.

Questions about home repairs and alterations will concern those made during the past three months and those planned to be made in the near future.

CAP checks radios for national network

Saturday, the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) radios all across the nation participated in a six-hour communications exercise.

Spearheading the local effort was the Metropolitan Emergency Services Squadron of Civil Air Patrol, based in the Romulus area.

This unit is commanded by First Lieutenant Edward DeZomits of 11364 Inkster Rd., Romulus.

Spearing ban draws fire from sportsmen

A plan to ban the winter spearing of fish by sportsmen in Michigan's inland waters, which starts with the 1972 season is being given a second hard look by the Department of Natural Resources.

This information was furnished to the Huron Valley Conservation Association of Belleville by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

This second look is occasioned by what has been described as criticism fired by sportsmen avidly interested in spear fishing.

The Department's Fisheries

Division Office at Lansing is drawing a heavy volume of mail and petitions. DNR Fisheries Chief Wayne H. Tody, reported the mail sentiment is against the proposed ban.

Chief Tody stated that if the mail is a true sample of public opinion pike spearing in Michigan is still a very popular sport and should be continued.

The Huron Valley Conservation Association feels the public should be aware of the proposed ban and should let the department at Lansing become aware of its preference either for or against.

Parish council elected

The results of the Parish Council election at St. Anthony Catholic Church, 409 W. Columbia Ave., Belleville have been announced by Pastor Rev. Raymond S. Skoney.

Eleven parishioners consented to be candidates for the Parish Council. Elected were: Ray Van Buhler, Ted Center, Don Greca Jr., Odalle Hoeft and Samuel Villa.

The alternates in the order of their election are: Gertrude Evanski, Nick Nehez and Edward Kronsperger (tie), Jean Chudzinski, Philip LeBar Jr. and Walter Pieknik.

The five newly elected council members will serve two-year terms.

Other members of the Parish Council that have another year of their term to serve are: Theodore H. Kuckelman, Bob Memering, Lucille Remus, Joyce Bujak and Frank Jahner.

THINK about your shoes. What did you pay for them? Did you pay more than you had to? If you're not all that happy, maybe you should pay a visit to a Thom McAn store. A long time ago Thom McAn figured out a way to give you more for your shoe dollar. This fifty-year-old formula is simple: Make your own good quality shoes. Make lots of them. Sell lots of them. Sell them for less money. Does it sound like the idea is too simple? Then there's something you should know about Thom McAn:

Thom McAn makes and sells more shoes than any other single shoe store brand in all America.

Thom McAn didn't get to be this popular by giving a bad deal. When you make a lot of shoes, your cost per pair is less. When you sell more, the price can be less. This can be done without sacrificing quality. Prove it to yourself. Visit a Thom McAn store soon. Pick up any shoe. Feel the leathers. Inside and out. The leathers and the shoemaker's details are the same as those in more expensive shoes. In fact, everything's the same as costlier shoes except for the price. What makes the shoe good is Thom McAn—not the price.

At Thom McAn, you get more for your shoe money. And considering what's happening to prices these days, we shouldn't spend more money than we have to. Of course, if every other store sold as many shoes as Thom McAn, they could charge less too. But that's their business. Thom McAn sells more shoes and makes a profit with fast nickels instead of slow dimes. But remember they're your nickels instead of your dimes. Think about it.

At least half a dozen souls have paddled rowboats across the Atlantic. To achieve fame forever. Can you remember the name of even one? . . . Wild game expert Don Hunt seriously contends the best way to catch a cheetah is to grab it by the tail and throw it into an open box. Might try that, might not, don't know . . . Among men who learn to use the typewriter, the record shows, those who stutter tend to become more proficient typists than those who don't. One out of five wives likes her husband just as he is, even hairless, bulbous and beery, if such he be. Other four out of five say they could do with a few improvements. Ernest Burgess, the scholar, found that out. It saddens our Love and War man. Only 20 per cent of the women like what they've got, as is. He will not be at ease until at least 50 per cent are satisfied. He is rededicating himself toward that end. Support him.

Open question: Can you name any reptile, even one, that's slimey?

Mysteriously, the researchers still insist the average ballerina eats approximately twice as much as the average professional football player. Doubtful, doubtful . . . The Royal Poinciana Gold Club of Naples, Fla., has 550 members. Of these exactly 360 live on one street, Gulf Shore Blvd. That's odd, isn't it? . . . Note a 'writer' of magazine fiction portrays a young lady of Dublin, Ireland, as counting her rosary beads in St. Patrick's Cathedral there. Interesting. St. Patrick's in Dublin is a Protestant church.

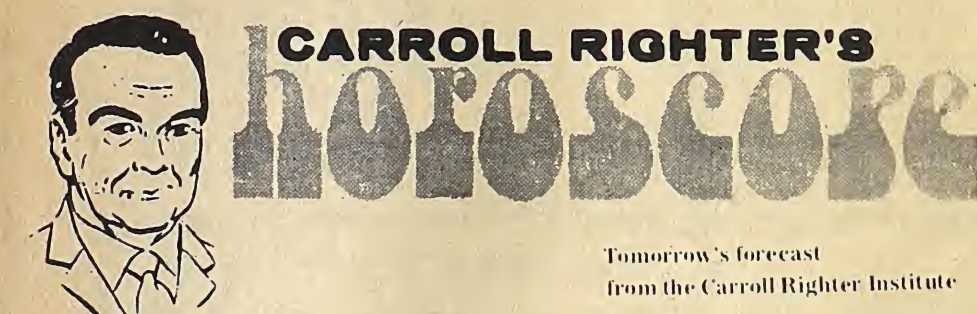

Customer service: Q. "In reading you from time to time, I gather you resent the nickname 'Louie.' Frankly, I don't blame you. What a lousy name! Now to the point. I've got a cat called Pedro who has never been known to purr. Is that unusual?" A. Believe so. Highly unusual. About Louie, you figure it's really that bad? . . . Q. "What's the fastest fish of all?" A. The Atlantic sailfish, some scientists say. Others contend the Mako shark is faster, though, in as much as sailfish meat has been found in Mako sharks' innards.

That driver leapt apt to be injured in a serious car crackup is the tall thin young man. Most apt to be injured is the short heavy older woman. Has to do with the configuration of the car's interior, whereabouts of the steering wheel and windshield. The report is from researchers at the University of California.

Countless wild ducks and geese die of birdshot. Not birdshot wounds. Just plain birdshot. They eat the scattered pellets and succumb to lead poisoning. Game men are worries about this. They say the bad shots out there in the marshes are killing more birds than those on target. Far more.

Rapid reply: True, the Santa Fe Railroad was named for Santa Fe, N.M. Still say it has never run through that city, however.

CARROLL RIGHTER'S

Tomorrow's forecast
from the Carroll Righter Institute

General tendencies: A very adverse day for taking any chances on the highway, or with anyone, for not only are persons suspicious of you and your motives - as well as you of theirs - but dramatic and unexpected things can happen that can cause considerable loss. Use of caution and objectivity helps very much. Keep alert.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Not a good day to take chances in driving, especially on the highways and byways, and being demanding with others doesn't help either. Study reports. Get routines handled with vim and vigor. Plan happy events.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) The practical aspects of any project are not very promising now, so be sure to spend wisely and preferably very little. To commit yourself to anything big could start a chain reaction of emergencies that would be deplorable.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) You feel a restless you could get into some very difficult situation that could cost you a pretty penny so calm down and do what is practical. Evening is all right for enjoying people you know and can trust. Show you have culture.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) You can rid yourself of worries quietly and quickly now without involving others concerning them. If you are in the right monetary bracket, assist one in trouble willingly. Show you are a humanitarian.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) Steer clear of social activities and keep out of trouble, utilizing your time for more practical pursuits. Working alone can gain you the personal aims you want so badly. Show that you are clam, cool and collected.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Don't take any risks whatsoever in any realm of your endeavor now or you will regret it later. Show bigwigs that you are an A-1 citizen. Steer clear of anything of a detrimental nature.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Although you would like to make some radical changes, this would only get you into deeper trouble. See where you have made errors and rectify instead. Show only your finest qualities to others.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You want to shove those responsibilities into a corner, but this would be detrimental to your advancement, so handle them efficiently instead. Prove that you are consistent, can be relied upon. Steer clear of trouble.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Associates could be quite annoying as the month ends, but don't show your feelings and tomorrow all will be fine again. Keep promises you have made and show your goodwill. Make allowances for March idiosyncrasies.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You scarcely know where to begin with work ahead of you, but if you do the most important first, all is fine. Then jog along pleasantly with the rest. Co-workers are not in a very good mood - placate them, be silent yourself.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You had better be with friends who are trustworthy and do not make you spend too much money for pleasure today. Get important work done first, though, without fail. Stop criticizing mate so much.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Take that chip off your shoulder at home and do more cooperating than criticizing. It's important you bring more happiness into the life of your family. A sense of real security is needed there, also.

If your child is born today he or she will be one of those fascinating young people who will have much character but will nonetheless need good training early on how to avoid individuals who will want to con them into doing things that are not according to the fine nature here, just out of sheer cussedness. Much wisdom in this chart. Ability for teaching.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

Executives planning seminar

Detroit, Toledo and Kalamazoo Chapters of the Planning Executives Institute have announced that their 3rd Annual Seminar, "The Human Side of the Planning Process," will be held on Friday, April 23, at the Statler-Hilton Motel in Ann Arbor.

Frank McArthur, a vice president of National Bank of Detroit and president of the Detroit Chapter, PEI, describes this years seminar as a "unique learning experience."

"We will explore the behavioral aspects of planning through lectures, group discussions, simulations and exercises." Anyone involved with the planning process should plan to attend.

Registration information may be obtained from Roger Sauter, Ernst & Ernst, 2000 Buhl Building, Detroit, Mich., 48226.

CANDY SALE WORKERS — Romulus Youth Baseball Association will again sponsor an annual candy sale throughout Romulus. Three of the candy sale workers are

(from left) Anna Fischer, 30609 Dru St.; Lottie Bushman, 30511 Dru St.; and Virginia Britz, 11442 Olive St. The two-week sale event will start April 22.

Disorder section opens

A Michigan civil disturbance planning section is being established by the State Police as part of their reorganized civil defense division, Col. John R. Plants, department director, reported.

Such a center for civil disorder control was part of a comprehensive anti-crime program outlined several months ago by Governor Milliken.

The reorganized division is called the "emergency services division" to better describe its broader scope and functions.

It is headed by Capt. George

L. Halverson, 42, a 19-year veteran with the department and former training commander. Plants, as head of the State Police, is state civil defense director. Halverson, as head of the reorganized division, is deputy state CD director.

The division will have two sections. One will be the civil disturbance planning section. The other is the civil disaster planning section commanded by Lt. William T. Cram, 43, and incorporating the units and activities of the former CD division. Cram has been on CD assignment the past two years.

The civil disturbance planning section has a training and tactical support unit and a planning unit.

Currently assigned to section organization work are S-Sgt. James L. Somers, 49, for planning, and Cpl. Michael J. Anderson, 29, for training, both of East Lansing headquarters. Section personnel later will number five, including two clerical employees.

Funding for the establishment of this program, amounting to $115,600 for the current fiscal year, was arranged through the Michigan Office of Criminal Justice Programs and the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration. The $115,600 includes $77,100 in federal aid and $38,500 in state funds appropriated to the State Police. Funding for the project's three-year period is budgeted at $368,600.

The civil disturbance planning section will be a centralized state-level coordination unit designed to improve the utilization of resources of the state in emergency situations.

The section's planning and training units will provide instruction, model operating plans, reference material, research, evaluation of equipment and confrontation management. The unit will be responsive to the needs of all communities and police departments in Michigan.

Principal objective of the section is to provide statewide coordination in all phases of civil disorder, from community planning through unity of command to control of emergencies.

Prisoner move would open way for change

A committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners has recommended that approximately $1 million be spent to move 150 prisoners from the county jail to the Detroit House of Correction.

Housing of the jail prisoners at the House of Correction (DeHoCo) would reduce the population of the overcrowded jail so that renovation of the jail could begin.

The move was recommended by the board's Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee March 19. It requires approval by the Ways and Means Committee which meets March 25, and then by the full board.

Under the recommended plan, the county would use two now-vacant barracks at the City prison camp in Plymouth Township. The estimated full-year expenditure of $1 million would cover the cost of paying the city $2.32 per prisoner per day, fencing and other renovations, and a security force of 47 Sheriff's deputies.

The two barracks would be fenced off from the rest of DeHoCo and the Sheriff's force would be responsible for security and for transporting the prisoners between DeHoCo and the downtown courts.

"This plan is the only feasible immediate solution to the problem of overcrowding at the jail. It is the only way we can reduce the jail population to the point where we can get into the cellblocks and start correcting the building's deficiencies," stated Commissioner Eugene A. Sikora, of Detroit, District 7, chairman of the Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee.

Ten months ago, the Board of Commissioners appropriated $1.5 million for major renovations at the 40-year-old jail, but the work has been stalled because the jail, designed to hold about 1,200, has had a population ranging from 1,400 to nearly 1,600 during the last several years.

Sikora pointed out that the commissioners have explored a number of other possibilities over many months - including purchase of Crittenton

Hospital in Detroit and possible use of abandoned buildings at Fort Wayne and Maybury Sanatorium.

"Neighborhood opposition killed the Crittenton idea and renovation of the old buildings at the other two places wasn't feasible," he said.

The major problem faced by the Board of Commissioners with respect to the DeHoCo plan is the estimated $1 million expense. There is no money earmarked for it at present and County officials are already concerned about the possibility of a budget deficit this year.

Members of the Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee are, in addition to Sikora:

Ervin A. Steiner Jr., Grosse Pointe Farms, R-Dist. 3, vice chairman; Roscoe L. Bobo, Ecorse, D-Dist. 18; William L. Dunbar, Detroit, D-Dist. 10; Huey A. Ferguson, Detroit, D-Dist. 5; William G. Suzore, Lincoln Park, D-Dist. 22; and Joseph F. Young, Detroit, D-Dist. 4.

Campaign seeks shift for supporting schools

By DON HOENSHELL
Panax Lansing Bureau

Grassroots support is booming for a petition campaign to shift school operating costs from the property to the income tax.

Rep. Roy Smith (R-Ypsilanti) said he said 40,000 petitions in circulation and the campaign is broadening.

"This time I think we can make it," he said. Smith's drive for signatures to place the plan on the 1972 ballot has been joined by five other House members and more are being recruited.

He will need 265,609 valid signatures by July 10, 1972. If all the petitions now in circulation were filled and return, the campaign would have 800,000 signatures.

The plan would reduce the ceiling on all local property taxes from 15 to 10 mills, eight for cities and two for townships, eliminate millage for school operations and set a 20-mill ceiling for school construction.

The missing school operations income would be picked up by increasing the state income tax 4 to 5 per cent.

Legislators signing on with Smith are Reps. Loren D. Anderson (R-Pontiac), Robert D. Young (R-Saginaw), John P. Smeekeens (R-Coldwater), Edward E. Mahalak (D-Romulus), and James Tierney (D-Garden City).

Smith said the biggest blocks of petitions are 10,000 each being distributed by the Michigan Townships Association, the Michigan State Grange, 3,000 by the Michigan Jaycees and 2,500 by Anderson.

"We're finding support straight across the board," Anderson said. "We've got our own main support from the people, not necessarily the public officials."

Smith said that one woman circulator collected 160 signatures in Ypsilanti in one day. Another circulator gathered 200 in one day.

Milan City Councilman Melvin Klopper, local chairman for the campaign, has 800 petitions and has started a door-to-door circulation campaign.

Smith is embarked on an almost nightly speaking tour, touching base around the state with legislators in their own districts. Mahalak and Smith addressed a rally of 200 in Milan.

Anderson is Smith's most enthusiastic supporter in the legislature in a campaign financed largely out of their own pockets. Circulators are asked to buy petitions at $11 a thousand.

Anderson said that for the first time, homeowners over 65 and retired are getting a property tax break under the plan.

"We're taking the retiree into the restaurant and giving him a good meal, rather than taking him around in back to sniff the ventilator," he said.

"I think a man has a right, if he works most of his life to buy a home, to be able to live out his days there. The United States is the only nation where it's a crime to be old."

Smith failed with the same campaign two years ago. He got 100,000 signatures by the July 6 deadline in 1970.

This year, he said, he notes some resistance outstate where some assessors still haven't come up to the constitutional assessments of 50 per cent of true cash value.

"The assessments are inequitable," said Smith. "It's no wonder they're not interested. The farther you get from the core city the worse the assessments get."

"You can't call it fraud and I don't know whether you can call it cheating, but it's dishonest."

Basically, Smith said, the plan places the burden of school operating costs, which he said will continue to increase, on the ability to pay principle of the state income tax.

Smith, a former township supervisor, calls the plan the "Fair Share Program" for school financing reform.

"If anybody has a better idea, fine, I'll accept it," he said. "This gives the people a chance to decide."
